CORK MAYOR A STOWAWAY

U.S. MOVE TO END DISORDER ALARMS CUBA

Envoy Asks Purpose of Crowder Trip.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Disclosure here today of the serious condition of affairs in Cuba suggests a strong possibility of American intervention in the event of the failure of Gen. Crowder's mission.

The United States has intervened in Cuba once under the Platt amendment since the original occupation following the Spanish war, and it has been freely predicted that if we should be compelled to go in again we would go in to stay.

The Cuban minister, Dr. Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, was so startled by the dispatch of Gen. Crowder and a staff of military aids to Havana aboard a battleship that he called at the state department today seeking an explanation. He was apprehensive, he said, that the Cuban people would jump to the conclusion that intervention was contemplated.

Remedy Chaos, Envoy Told.

Acting Secretary of State Davis informed the minister that the purpose of the president was amply set forth in the White House statement and sought to impress him with the necessity of the Cuban government taking effective steps to remedy the existing chaos.

The Cuban minister had not been advised of the president's move until he read the newspapers today. The state department today instructed the American minister in Havana to notify President Menocal of Gen. Crowder's impending arrival.

The trouble in Cuba may be set forth under three heads:

Economic—Signified by the shutdown of sugar cane mills and general stagnation of industry.

Financial—Caused by excessive sugar crop speculation, resulting in the insolvency of numerous banks and the establishment of a moratorium by the government.

Political—Emanating from a failure to determine who has been elected president, charges of election frauds clouding the result.

Sugar Bubble Has Burst.

Cuba appears to be suffering from a sugar spree and the morning after. With sugar selling for 25 cents in the United States last year, Cuba was rolling in wealth and sugar millionaires were made in a day. Then the price of sugar slumped, the cane mills closed, and Cuba went broke.

The Cuban situation was the subject of another conference today between the president and Mr. Davis. The president, it is reported, feels that intervention in Cuba can be avoided if certain measures are taken by the Cuban government, but these possible steps have not been defined publicly.

Among them, however, it is believed, is the abolishment of the moratorium, which has been extended until Feb. 1, with no assurance that it will not be extended thereafter. The Cuban government has exhibited a stubborn reluctance to carry into execution remedies suggested for an amelioration of the financial difficulties.

Moratorium Hits U. S. Trade.

The moratorium affects vitally important American interests, Cuba's largest trade being with this country, and American bankers have expressed the view that it is most inadvisable to continue the moratorium, not only because it cannot save the insolvent banks but also because it is a severe punishment to the solvent banks.

Gen. Crowder's mission is to convince the Cuban government of the unsoundness of its financial and economic policies and also to obtain assurances that they will be immediately remedied.

U. S. May Have to Act.

It is felt here that the uncertainty in the political situation is affecting deleteriously both the financial and economic conditions and that it is important to clear up all controversies arising from the recent elections, which took place in Cuba at the same time as the presidential election in the United States. President Menocal's term expires on May 20, and in absence of a legal government at that time the United States would be obliged to take charge of affairs.

There is a question whether military forces would have to be employed in the event of intervention. President Roosevelt sent William Howard Taft, then secretary of war, to Cuba, also in a war vessel, in 1906, this visit preceding intervention. The nation was split into factions. Secretary Taft recommended intervention and 6,000 soldiers were sent.

LAST SHOT GONE, NABS GUNMAN ON BLUFF, WINS $100

Sleuth's 3-1 Battle Nets Tribune Award.

With an EMPTY revolver Detective Sergeant David Schwartz accepted 3 to 1 odds in a battle with death on Dec. 26 last and won. Yesterday THE TRIBUNE presented him with $100—this newspaper's December hero award.

December was the banner month of 1920 for police heroism. THE TRIBUNE received the longest list of recommendations in the history of its monthly award for the bravest act performed by a Chicago policeman, fireman, or life saver.

How the $100 Was Won.

It was 8:45 o'clock on the night after Christmas when Schwartz displayed the courage that won him THE TRIBUNE prize and the commendation of Chief of Police Fitzmorris.

Schwartz had paused in front of 5200 Calumet avenue. Two men stepped from a seven passenger touring car and aimed revolvers at him. Schwartz reached for his revolver. The men sprang back and at a distance of less than twenty feet began an attempt to riddle him with bullets. Their shots went wild.

The detective sergeant returned the fire, driving the men into their car. Before they could get under way, Schwartz's bullets, crashing through the car body, drove his two assailants into the street on the far side of the auto.

The chauffeur started after them, firing at Schwartz as the latter tried to intercept them. The policeman had an excellent chance to shoot him. Schwartz pulled the trigger. There was a sickening click. His revolver was empty.

Desperate Bluff Wins.

But the detective kept on coming. Shoving his revolver into the chauffeur's face as the latter leaped for freedom, he shouted "Hands Up!"

The bluff made good. The bandit, not knowing he had Schwartz at his mercy, surrendered. He was later identified as Thomas Devera, alias William Burton, 3612 Parnell avenue, in the language of Capt. John L. Hogan's report, "one of the toughest gunmen in Chicago."

A paragraph of Capt. Hogan's report follows:

"In view of the fact that Sergt. Schwartz stood toe to toe with these desperate men, fought it out to his last shot, and then, with an empty revolver, captured one of the most desperate gunmen in the city, I respectfully recommend him for THE TRIBUNE prize."

There were numerous other brave acts by patrolmen and other members of the force during the month.

Lay Down Lives for Duty.

The monthly awards are made to living heroes, but THE TRIBUNE wishes to call special attention to the bravery of Patrolmen Charles Conlon and Timothy O'Connor, who were slain.

Patrolman Conlon died in pursuit of the Ashland drug store bandits and Patrolman O'Connor gave his life fighting six armed robbers who held up the Marshall Field & Co. garage. In his report on the latter robbery Capt. Patrick McCauley says:

"Employés at the garage state that Patrolman O'Connor's valor was wonderful and that his lone efforts to protect the employés and the money seemed nothing short of superhuman. Patrolman O'Connor gave his life in endeavoring to perform the duty assigned to him; no man could make a greater sacrifice."

Big Mexico City Bank Suspends, Causes Panic

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.] [Copyright: 1921.]

Mexico City, Jan. 4.—The suspension of the Paris-Mexico bank today has caused a panic in banking circles here. Unconfirmed rumors have it that three banks will not open tomorrow. A committee of bankers visited the secretary of the treasury, Señor de la Huerta, this afternoon, asking federal aid.

FORGOT KILLING MAN FOR 2 DAYS, WOMAN SAYS

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 4.—Insisting that she killed Frank Miller last Sunday night, hid the body under the bed in her bedroom, and then forgot about it until she moved the bed today to sweep, Lillian McGill, 29 years old, was being held by the police tonight for investigation.

According to the police she told her story at the station and then led policemen to the body. She said Miller struck her before she shot him. The woman said she had been in a dazed condition since the killing.

The police tonight said that in 1913 Miller was charged with the killing of a Kansas stockman in a resort here, but that the charge later was dismissed.

1920 CHICAGO'S GREATEST YEAR FOR THE STORK

Nineteen hundred and twenty was Chicago's greatest stork year. The city's baby record, established in 1918, was broken by 4,783. Health Commissioner Robertson made public the following birth figures yesterday:

1920	55,316	1917	49,566
1918	50,533

Of the 55,316 babies born last year, 28,515 were boys and 26,801 were girls.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Two thousand canary birds, bullfinches, and goldfishes were brought here today in the hold of the steamship Kerlew after their owner battled night and day with hordes of rats to save his valuable and strange consignment. It is the first lot of canaries imported from Germany since before the war.

HIS BRIDE-ELECT AND RIVAL ELOPE

Miss Celeste Lamb, stepdaughter of a retired millionaire lumberman there, who was to have been the bride, eloped with Robert S. Smith Jr. of Hammond, Ind., whose father is superintendent of the Interstate Iron and Steel company plant at East Chicago, according to advice from Clinton last night.

Harold Holcomb, an ensign in the United States navy, had journeyed all the way from Pasadena, Cal., to marry Miss Lamb. It was the third time the wedding had been postponed. One report, from the Clinton police station, was that Smith was to have been best man. This could not be confirmed.

On Way to Chicago.

The wedding was to have been one of the fashionable events of the year in Clinton. The scheduled hour was 8 o'clock Tuesday night. Miss Lamb and Smith disappeared at 3 o'clock in the morning. The correspondent of THE TRIBUNE said a couple corresponding to their description was seen to board a Chicago bound passenger train of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, which leaves at that hour.

If they came to Chicago on that train they arrived here at 7:10 yesterday morning. They made no application for a marriage license. The supposition is that they went to Crown Point or some other Indiana city.

Surprise for Parents.

Mr. Smith's parents expressed surprise when informed of the circumstances last night over long distance telephone. They said Robert had no intention of marrying last Sunday when he left Hammond after spending the Christmas holidays with them. He had mentioned Miss Lamb as an acquaintance, Mrs. Smith said, but that was all. They had heard nothing from the couple up to a late hour, they said.

Mr. Smith has two sons, Robert and Will. The latter is secretary-treasurer of the Corn Products Refining company of Clinton. Robert has been employed there since his return from France early in 1919. He was with the 108th engineers' signal corps.

Family Well Known.

Miss Bamb's mother was formerly the wife of the late James Dwight Lamb. Miss Lamb is 21 years old. The family is one of the best known in Iowa.

Harold Holcomb first met Miss Lamb when she and her mother were wintering at the Hotel Maryland in Pasadena early in 1919. It was reported to be a case of love at first sight. He proposed in the late spring and was accepted.

ROAD BUILDING TO BE PUSHED AS AID TO THE IDLE

Work for the unemployed in the building of roads in 1921 with the billion dollars available in various states for this purpose will be one of the principal subjects considered at the American good roads congress to be held here Feb. 9 to 12, Michael J. Faherty, president of the congress, stated last night.

Officials of the association say $540,800,000 has been appropriated recently in sixteen states for road building. In addition to this $160,000,000 is available through federal aid and $276,200,000 has been provided through direct levies by states and counties. In Illinois the $60,000,000 bond issue approved at the November, 1918, election is available for road construction.

"This ought to be one of the most important questions discussed at the meeting," Mr. Faherty said. "Illinois and most all western states have money to go into roads. It would seem that this would be the time of all times to use it to provide work for men out of jobs. The roads certainly are needed and the thousands of unemployed men certainly need the jobs.

Another subject to be considered by the congress will be methods of road construction, Mr. Faherty said.

"Different soils, such as clay, sand, and bog, require different foundations for roads," he said. "Even the most eminent engineers are disagreed as to the best materials to use under certain conditions. To my mind, this is a most important question to be considered in road building."

LONG DISTANCE PHONE TESTIMONY DECIDES DIVORCE

Judge Jesse A. Baldwin yesterday granted a divorce on testimony given over long distance telephone from Centerville, Ia., to Chicago attorneys. The decree, with $50 a month alimony, went to Mrs. Carol B. Fogelstrom of 1650 North Kedvale avenue.

J. D. Holman, father of the girl named as correspondent, told Attorney Victor E. Rehm over long distance phone how Fogelstrom, posing as a divorced man, had deceived Miss Mary Holman and gone through a fake marriage ceremony with her.

The story retold to the judge by Attorney Rehm won a divorce for Mrs. Fogelstrom.

The STORY of TRIBUNE CIRCULATION

INDUSTRY TURNS FACE TOWARD NORMAL YEAR

Plants Resuming in Many Sections.

New York, Jan. 4.—The American Locomotive company, it was learned today, plans to build a large plant in Illinois, across the river from St. Louis, at an initial cost of between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000, and on which the eventual expenditure may reach $25,000,000. A tract of about 205 acres, one of four on which options have been obtained, is favored as affording best traffic facilities. This is said to be located between Granite City and Madison, near the Wabash and Terminal railways.

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Hundreds of industrial plants are reopening throughout the country after long periods of idleness. From Maine to the Carolinas and from the manufacturing centers of the west comes news telling of a revival in industry that has followed the advent of the new year.

In some cases this move back to normalcy has been accompanied by reductions in wages; in other cases old wage scales have continued. There is a feeling of growing optimism among the manufacturers that 1921 will mark a perceptible return to the orderly times before the war.

Save in a few isolated instances there have been no strikes and no disturbances.

Workers Form Relief Body.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, through Sidney Hillman, president, tonight announced that a $1,000,000 corporation would be formed for the relief of 60,000 unemployed clothing workers in this city. At the same time the clothing manufacturers' association of New York announced a large part of the spring clothing for the local market would be manufactured in Springfield, Mass.

Ten Thousand Back at Work.

Manchester, N. H., Jan. 4.—Resumption of full time in nearly all departments of the Amoskeag Manufacturing company cotton mills was announced. They employ 10,000 operatives.

Goodyear Tire Trims Wages.

Akron, O., Jan. 4.—A reduction of 12½ per cent in factory wages and of 15 to 20 per cent in salaries of all office employés was announced today by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company. It was approved by the factory house and senate in the company's industrial republic.

Get Back Milwaukee Jobs.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 4.—Between 1,000 and 1,500 men will be reëmployed during the week by leading Milwaukee industries, it was learned today.

Studebakers Open Monday.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 4.—The Studebaker corporation will resume work on a scheduled production of ninety automobiles daily Jan. 10, it was announced today. The output will be increased gradually to 500 cars daily.

Increase Working Schedule.

Biddeford, Me., Jan. 4.—The Pepperell mills in this city and the York mills in Saco, employing together 6,000 hands, have increased their working schedule to four days a week.

To Reopen at Hutchinson.

Hutchinson, Kas., Jan. 4.—The Larabee flour mills will be opened in a week or ten days, Ashby Woodson, manager, said today.

500 Strikers Back at Work.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 4.—Eight of the clothing manufacturers affected by the strike resumed work today, giving employment to about 500 of the 2,500 operators who went out. There has been no strike among the large Baltimore clothing manufacturing plants.

Packard Reopens on Part Time.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 4.—The Packard Motor Car company plant, closed several weeks ago, has reopened some departments with several thousand men on part time.

Wages of all employés of the Detroit United railway company other than platform men have been reduced approximately 20 per cent.

Cluett-Peabody Resumes.

Troy, N. Y., Jan. 4.—All departments of the local factories of Cluett, Peabody & Co., Inc., resumed operations today on a five day week schedule.

Du Pont Resumes with Part Force.

Arlington, N. J., Jan. 4.—About 3,200 men went to work yesterday at the Du Pont Powder plant. The plant usually employs about 4,700.

Cash Fare on 'L' to Remain at Ten Cents

Cash "L" fares will remain at 10 cents under the permanent elevated fare order which the state public utilities commission will issue this week.

At its daily conferences the commission has arrived at a valuation of between $80,000,000 and $85,000,000 for the elevated properties, or between $9,000,000 and $14,000,000 more than the valuation fixed by the city council on Aug. 14, 1918.

Order Due Saturday.

This information, given to THE TRIBUNE last night on excellent authority, will be verified, according to the present plans of the commissioners, in an official order which will probably be issued next Saturday.

The order will end more than two years of litigation before the commission during which the fares increased from 5 cents in November of 1918 to 10 cents on July 31, 1920.

The commission is said to have been actuated in its latest decision by testimony introduced by the company that during the next twelve months more than $1,500,000 will be required for maintenance of way and structures; that the maintenance equipment will cost about $1,450,000; power $1,380,000; cost of conducting transportation, including rentals, licenses, taxes, etc., $7,575,000, and that the total expenses for the period will be in the neighborhood of $13,945,000.

Profit to Be $4,000,000.

The 10 cent fare will permit a return of not more than 5.2 per cent on the valuation fixed by the commission. Less than $4,000,000 will be available for return on the investment and depreciation charges.

The commissioners take the position that the blanket wage increases, averaging 15 cents an hour, which went into effect last June, together with other costs, preclude any reduction in the rates at present.

The argument of Attorney Chester E. Cleveland for the city that if the "L" lines are permitted to disregard their 5 cent fare contracts with the city they should be classed as commercial railroads and directed to substitute a fare based on mileage for the flat rate, is said to have been tossed into the discard by the commissioners.

Cleveland Gives Views.

"It is simply one more argument in favor of the repeal of the public utilities act and the abolition of the commission," Mr. Cleveland said last night when he heard of the commission's intentions. "The order will be appealed or a rehearing will be requested of the new commission to be appointed by Governor Elect Small, which will be in office soon. With the appointment of the new commission a better day will dawn for the people."

FORMER RULER MAY REUNITE AUSTRO-HUNGARY

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Two evening newspapers in Rome, according to a London Times dispatch from the Italian capital, print Berlin reports that the crown of Hungary will be offered soon to former Emperor Charles.

The Epoca of Rome has received a Vienna message which asserts that the proclamation of Charles is being prepared and that immediately on his arrival the fusion of Austria and Hungary under Charles will be proclaimed.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Eugene H. Coapman, vice president and general manager of the Southern railway, died at his home here tonight. The body will be taken to Wyocena, Wis., Mr. Coapman's native home. He was 56 years old.

REACHES U. S. WITH BROTHER OF M'SWINEY

Foils British; Must Face Inquiry.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 4.—Peter J. MacSwiney of New York, brother of the late lord mayor of Cork, and Daniel O'Callaghan, present lord mayor of Cork, arrived in this port tonight as stowaways on the American steamer West Cannon from Cork.

DANIEL O'CALLAGHAN. [Tribune Foreign News Service.]

Immediately upon arrival of the West Cannon, immigration authorities discovered the two men on board and disregarding the claims of their identity, had them placed in jail pending investigation.

MacSwiney carried a passport, vised by an American consul and could have made the trip openly, but chose rather to stowaway with Lord Mayor O'Callaghan.

Both Gain Freedom.

Upon showing his passport MacSwiney was released and the lord mayor was freed as soon as the authorities arrived. The lord mayor took up his residence for the time at a hotel, refusing to discuss any details of his visit.

PETER MACSWINEY. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

According to MacSwiney, however, O'Callaghan is in this country at the invitation of the Committee of One Hundred at Washington investigating the Irish situation. O'Callaghan is under guard furnished by immigration officials.

Elected to Stow Away.

"The British would not allow the lord mayor to visit America and he stowed away on the steamer," MacSwiney stated. "I could have come back as a passenger, but preferred to make the trip with him, as I now prefer to remain at his side while he is being detained."

"I don't wish to be considered discourteous to the press," the lord mayor said when seen in jail, "but I prefer to say nothing until I have had my status defined by the proper authorities."

Daniel O'Callaghan as deputy Lord Mayor of Cork performed the duties of Lord Mayor MacSwiney while the latter was in prison in London. Shortly after MacSwiney succumbed to his hunger strike late in October O'Callaghan was elected lord mayor to succeed him.

O'Callaghan presided at a special meeting of the city council on Dec. 13, at which resolutions were adopted which concluded:

"We proclaim our unaltered determination to seek or sanction no truce save such international agreement as may be arranged between the Dail Eirann and the English government."

NOT INVITED, SAYS COMMITTEE.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—Neither Peter J. MacSwiney of New York, brother of the late lord mayor of Cork nor Daniel O'Callaghan, the present lord mayor of Cork, who arrived at Newport News tonight from an Irish port as stowaways, have been requested to appear before the commission from the Committee of One Hundred, investigating the Irish question, Dr. Frederic C. Howe, chairman of the commisson, said tonight.

DAIL EIRANN TO MEET

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] [Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The chief news from Dublin today is that Eamonn De Valera is about to call a public meeting of Dail Eirann, thus taking advantage of Mr. Lloyd George's recent offer, at which the whole Irish situation will be considered. It is said De Valera, who is said positively to be in Ireland, plans to attend this meeting.

Some say the purpose of the meeting is advocating acceptance of England's offer of a settlement, while others declare De Valera will raise a fiery cross and plead for intensified revolts. At any rate, it is agreed that De Valera will appear at this meeting.

New Irish Aspect.

If Dail Eirann does meet it will have to consider its policy with a view to a changed condition in Ireland due to the passage of the home rule act. It is said a large party will favor the workings of the act as the basis for increased demands in future.

If the Sinn Fein refuses to nominate candidates for the new southern parliament it will allow the elections to go by default to the moderates and the rebels will then be in revolt against the Irish and not the British government, it is pointed out.

Sinn Fein May Contest.

This is recognized in Dublin and there is a strong possibility that the Sinn Fein may contest all seats in the hope of capturing a new parliament.

If this is decided upon the election will form an interesting test of the real strength of the Sinn Fein, proving or disproving the British contention that the body is not representative of the real opinion of a majority of the Irish people.

DE VALERA IN DUBLIN?

DUBLIN, Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.]—Two rumors spread rapidly this evening—one that a manifesto to the Irish people would be issued by Eamonn de Valera tonight, the other that De Valera had come to Dublin. Confirmation of neither could be obtained.

The public may never know how De Valera reach Ireland. It is believed that the means will be kept a secret, as other absent Sinn Fein leaders may find it necessary to utilize the same plan.

It is reported in what is considered reliable circles that orders have been received from London forbidding the crown forces to arrest De Valera.

The tension prevailing in Dublin before Christmas has greatly relaxed.

An official proclamation extends the martial law area to Counties Clare, Waterford, Wexford, and Kilkenny, and to the city of Waterford, effective today.

203 IRISH SLAIN IN 1920

BY JOHN LESTER.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

DUBLIN, Jan. 4.—The Sinn Fein has just issued a list containing the names of 203 Irish alleged to have been assassinated by British police and military during 1920.

According to the Sinn Fein figures, 175 young men, 6 women, 12 children, and 10 men over 60 years of age were slain. They report none killed in armed conflict, 36 while prisoners, 69 in their homes, and 98 by indiscriminate firing.

Troops Foil Bombers.

It is officially reported that during the attack on the police barracks at Kilbritain, County Cork, a box of explosives was placed under the window with sixty feet of fuse. The garrison opened fire and maintained a barrage thereby preventing the bomb from being exploded. The attackers finally retired.

Police Bombed in Cork.

CORK, Jan. 4.—Another bombing, resulting in the wounding of six constables and the wounding of several civilians, occurred here tonight. A detachment of police was crossing Parnell bridge at about 7:30 o'clock when a bomb exploded among them. The bridge is near police headquarters, from which a large force promptly turned out with rifles and machine guns. These, it is stated, were turned upon the quays and neighboring streets.

Carson Forsakes Ulster.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Sir Edward Carson has decided to relinquish the political leadership of the Ulster Unionists and also not to take office in a new Ulster administration, according to the London Times, which adds: "He considers his work as Ulster leader ended with the passing of a home rule act acceptable to his followers."

ONE SHOT, JAW OF ANOTHER BROKEN IN LOOP BATTLE

J. E. MacDonald, watchman for a private detective agency, shot one man and fractured another's jaw at Jackson boulevard and Market street last night. Then he was arrested.

Samuel M. Beaumont of the New Gault hotel, superintendent for the Mellen Stuart Construction company, was almost hit by an automobile in which MacDonald was riding. The watchman jumped out and after an argument hit Beaumont in the jaw, fracturing it and knocking out two teeth.

Robert Hall, 19, driver of a mail truck, protested, and MacDonald drew his revolver and shot Hall through the right arm. A crowd that had collected was sent scurrying by the shot. Then the police came.

MacDonald was locked up in Central station. He said he thought he had encountered holdup men. Hall was taken to Iroquois Memorial hospital and Beaumont was taken home.

REDS READY TO OVERRUN PORTS ALONG BALTIC

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]
[Copyright: 1921.]

PARIS, Jan. 4.—French authorities confirm information from Riga that the French mission there considers the bolshevik danger so serious as to warrant their repeated requests by cable that warships be sent without delay. Destroyers are understood to be already en route to the Baltic port or are about to leave forthwith.

On the other hand, it is rather doubted in official quarters here whether the war party has such complete control at Moscow as news from Riga would indicate. The possibility that England may reach commercial accord with the bolsheviki in the near future is thought to be sufficient argument for aggressive action in the Baltic—where England is particularly interested—to enable bolshevik moderates, Tchitcherin and Lenin, to restrain the extremists at least for the time.

See Drive On Roumania.

Even should this prove impossible the French think that the first Red drive is more likely to come against Roumania and Galicia—which would involve Poland—than upon Baltic states.

A bolshevik invasion, accompanied by uprisings of local Communists, is expected at any time and foreign missions and welfare organizations, whose headquarters are mostly at Riga, capital of Latvia, are not only prepared to leave at a moment's notice, but have cabled repeatedly for warships to insure protection and evacuation in case escape by land is cut off.

Tells of Lenin Defeat.

First of all, after a series of stormy discussions at the eighth Pan-Russian congress of Moscow, held in December, the Extremist war party won a complete victory over the pacifists, even though the latter were headed by Lenin and Trotzky.

Already large forces of troops had been concentrated on the soviet western frontier. Forty thousand men were reported in the north at Gatchina, threatening the Esthonian border town of Narva, and 65,000, including many Lettish Communists, farther south along the Latvian frontier.

Red Meeting at Riga.

On Christmas eve a secret Communist meeting was held in Riga over which Joffe, head of the soviet in the meeting of the delegation negotiating peace with the Poles, presided. It was attended by delegates from Communist centers in the capital and country districts of Latvia. The meeting decided that the time had come to advance the Red flag to the shores of the Baltic. Minute plans were drawn up for the revolution to begin at Riga and other Latvian towns on Jan. 12. Simultaneously Red troops should move across the frontier in support.

The informant says it is understood this date probably will be advanced, as it is said to be difficult to restrain the troops in question who are ill fed and eager for loot.

Plans of Bolsheviki.

According to the plan the Communists have divided Riga into sections, each of which are to be taken over by a commissar with a force of local Reds as the revolution begins. The first task will be to arrest all members of the government and all foreigners, each in their section of city.

A blacklist of foreigners has been prepared, divided into three classes Class A includes those to be shot immediately, class B those to be put on trial immediately, class C those to be kept under guard or supervision.

Communists are said to have boasted openly that within an hour after the outbreak begins, Riga and the whole country will be in their hands.

Missions Ready to Leave.

The missions themselves are prepared to evacuate at a moment's notice. Foreigners have been warned to leave now or stay at their own risk. They include American Commissioner Young, his military attaché, Col. Halliday, and two or three assistants. There are also American Consul Hurley, whose wife left Riga with other women on Wednesday, and a large Red Cross organization under charge of Col. Ryan, with a personnel of about thirty Americans and some half dozen children's food relief workers.

French and British officials' names figure on class A of the bolshevik blacklist—those to be executed immediately. In fact, the name of Col. Busarquet, head of the French mission, is first on the list.

LENIN'S TERROR POLICY.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—A new policy of terror abroad, especially in nearby countries, has been decided upon by the Russian soviet, according to official advices from Moscow received today by the government.

Nikolai Lenin is quoted by the advices as saying in a proclamation to the commune committees of Europe that "it is absolutely indispensable to keep the bourgeois enemy busy with internal trouble in order that they cannot injure soviet Russia."

WHERE RED TIDE BEATS AGAIN

1—A red drive against western Europe is imminent. Great masses of troops are mobilized against the Baltic States, Poland, Galicia, and Roumania.

The bolsheviki leaders appear divided as to which front of attack would bring the best results. Opponents of the northern plan assert that such a course would disorganize the little states and end all chances of trade relations with Great Britain, which the bolsheviki desire.

2—The main body of Russian opinion, it is said, favors an attack on Roumania and Galicia, which are not so accessible to outside aid as are the Baltic states. Poland might also be attacked from the south by this plan.

3—American warships are reported speeding to Riga to protect the American mission there.

BRITAIN FORMS £10,000,000 RUSS TRADE CONCERN

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Proposals for the formation of a corporation capitalized at £10,000,000 (normally about $50,000,000) to facilitate trade between Russia and Great Britain, which, it is understood, had been approved by the government and Leonid Krassin, soviet representative, is announced by the London Times. The plans await the action Jan. 12 of the Russian branch of the London chamber of commerce.

The corporation, the capital of which will be subscribed equally by Russia and Great Britain, the Times says, will be controlled by a board of governors selected by both countries, the Russian organization operating as a department of the soviet government.

The British government, the Times adds, is prepared to advance a special credit fund equal to half the British capital as a loan free of interest for ten years.

The corporation would buy from and sell directly to British manufacturers and traders at competitive prices, the privilege to be open to all firms whether members of the corporation or not.

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4.

Disclosure of the serious economic, financial, and political situation in Cuba foreshadows American intervention in the event of failure of Gen. Crowder's mission. Fearing intervention, the Cuban minister visited the state department and was advised of the necessity that Cuba remedy the situation.

Congress, it appears, is not seriously considering the appeal made by the American Legion to extend the three years' statute of limitations to six years to punish draft evaders. Such an extension, house judiciary committee members say, would be regarded as ex post facto legislation and unconstitutional.

A concerted effort is on in congress to put a stop to further army recruiting at this time and to limit the standing army. Senator New introduced a resolution today to fix 175,000 as the standing army limit; Senator Dial proposed a resolution to stop all recruiting.

The American Farm Bureau federation presented witnesses before the house agriculture committee in support of legislation prohibiting dealings in futures on grain exchanges. Hearings will be continued tomorrow.

Flour millers opposed a change in the ocean freight rate differential before the shipping board. Ship operators urged a return to a former differential. The present differential is designed to encourage the exportation of flour.

The senate finance committee will begin hearings on the emergency agricultural tariff bill on Thursday. Soldiers bonus legislation will be taken up on Jan. 13.

Justice Stafford, District Supreme court, decreed that unless the Chicago packers within thirty days submit new plans for disposing of their stockyard properties which the court can accept he will appoint a trustee receivership to dispose of them.

BOXER TURNS THIEF; ROBBED.

Samuel Udhoff, 17 years old, 1813 Hastings street, was arrested yesterday at State and Madison streets after he had seized a purse belonging to Mrs. Minnie Du Brock, 4706 Figurney street. Udhoff said he had been training to be a boxer and, needing $100 to complete his course, had decided to obtain it by picking pockets.

NEW FIGHT ON SOCIALISTS IS BREWING IN N. Y.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Opposition to seating the Socialist legislators, a senator and three assemblymen, is strong among up-state lawmakers, it developed today. Archibald E. Stevenson, associate counsel for the Lusk committee and one of the state's lawyers in the proceedings to oust the five Socialists last April, arrived here today to confer with Senator Lusk, majority leader in the new senate. The bitterness of the up-state assemblyman is directed against Charles Solomon, Socialist, who twice was expelled from the assembly and was accused last year of insulting the American flag.

Stevenson explained that he is in Albany mainly to confer with Senator Lusk on the Lusk committee report, which is expected to contain an arraignment of socialistic activities and an appeal to congress to check immigration.

CLOTHING COST SLASHED A THIRD BY WHOLESALERS

Ready Mades for Spring Show Big Drop.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Local clothing manufacturers appear to have reached the conclusion that many lines of fabrics have about reached a stabilized price level at the textile mills.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx, the leading factor in the ready made trade, which two months ago was advising the trade to defer placing its spring orders until still prices of cloths became less flighty, opened its lines of spring and summer wear yesterday, showing recessions of approximately one-third from last season's mark.

An announcement from the company says that worsteds of the tropical sort start at $23, as compared with $33.50 last year. These, of course, are prices to the retailers. The starting price of wool suits is $25, as again $40 last fall and $37 a year ago. Blue serge suits are offered at $30, as compared to $47 last fall and $43 one year ago. A standard worsted suit is now wholesaled at $34, as against $45 for the spring of 1920. The finest American made worsted suits are offered at $52, as against $80, the price last fall.

Fine worsted trousers are announced at $9, compared to $12.50 last spring. Prices for summer goods such as mohairs and Palm Beaches range upward from $14.50, compared to $16.50 last year.

No Wage Reductions Yet.

The reductions have been brought about despite the fact that as yet no cuts in wages have been made in the clothing industry. It is, declared by some trade experts that at the new prices, the clothing business is on a no-profit basis for the manufacturers, whose greatest concern at present is to maintain volume and absorb overhead.

It was said last night that for the present it will have little bearing upon unemployment in the garment industry in Chicago. It apparently depends upon the size of the orders placed by buyers, who are now gathered here from all sections of the country. Some of the big houses say they have been running at 70 per cent capacity and what curtailment they have is the usual seasonal slump.

Despite this, unemployment has been prevalent among garment workers for the last month or two, as any factory inspector or west side politician or social worker will tell one, and many small shops have closed up for lack of orders.

Back east, as noted several days ago, the resumption of buying by some manufacturers who have been holding back until prices came down further has led to the reopening of several textile mills. It is reflected, too, in increased purchases of wool during the last few weeks. Prices fall, buying is resumed, and industry begins to start up all along the line, and there you are.

Heavy Buying in State Street.

Meanwhile State street, ever since Christmas, has witnessed a most cheering phenomenon—despite growing unemployment and part time work, the consuming public in the last ten days has shown a great purchasing power, particularly in clothing. Some large stores report the price slashes brought them the largest week's volume of business in two or three years. They report that wherever real bargains were given a land office business was done.

It is all borne out by trips through the stores in the last week. Long queues of customers were in front of delivery windows; it has been nothing extraordinary for a store to put on fifty or sixty extra bushelmen, the men who make alterations. In some lines goods are declared to have been on the counter at less than replacement value.

Buyers from all sections say that great quantities of goods bought at peak prices have been liquidated and the retail trade in general is readjusted to the new level. In the manufacturing trade the feeling is that while mill prices of textiles may be deflated still further they are nearer a stabilized basis than ever, and when supply and possible demand are figured in the period for marking time has been passed.

Lumber Men Gather Today.

Today the lumber industry will gather in Chicago at Congress hotel to discuss possible ways of stimulating building activities. The gathering was called by Edward Hines, but on account of illness he is unable to atttend, and John H. Kirby of Houston, Tex., president of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association, will preside.

The lumber market, it is pointed out, is demoralized. Prices have been cut, but there is no demand and many mills are idle. Despite the drop in lumber and some other supplies, building materials are higher than any other group of commodities with the solitary exception of house furnishings.

PACIFIC PATROL PLAN APPROVED BY AUSTRALIANS

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

MELBOURNE, Jan. 4. — The announcement that the Canadian navy might be transferred to the Pacific, where it could coöperate with the American fleet, has created great interest here.

Autoists Whose Car Killed Policeman Held to Jury

A recommendation that David S. Groh, head of the Groh Detective agency at 68 West Washington stret, and his wife, Mrs. Josephine Groh, be held to the grand jury on charges of manslaughter, was made yesterday by a coroner's jury which investigated the death of South Park Policeman Thomas Collins. Collins died early yesterday at the German Evangelical Deaconess hospital of injuries he received Sunday night when he was struck by the Groh car while attempting to enforce traffic regulations at Garfield boulevard and Ashland avenue. Witnesses say Groh shoved Collins from his running board and swerved his car to one side, crushing the policeman between his machine and another automobile.

SILENCE ABOUT SLACKER LIST DEEP AS GRAVE

Congress Evades the Draft Evaders.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Congress is not seriously contemplating any action with relation to the recent demand made by the American Legion for the enactment of legislation which would extend the statute of limitations to permit prosecution of draft evaders.

This was apparent today after Representative Volstead, chairman of the judiciary committee, had received a telegraphic appeal from F. W. Galbraith, American Legion national commander, urging prompt consideration of the Watson bill, which provides for extension to six years of the three year limitation against prosecution.

Palmer Says It's Invalid.

"The bill extending the period during which evaders may be brought to trial," Mr. Volstead said, "was submitted to the attorney general. Mr. Palmer expressed the view that congress had no power to pass such a bill, as it might be held to violate the constitutional provision against ex-post facto legislation. He also expressed the view that there were not a great many persons guilty of willful violation of the draft who had escaped prosecution."

Representative Kahn, chairman of the house military affairs committee, said it was not likely that his committee would take any action.

What Galbraith Said.

In his telegram to Chairman Volstead today Commander Galbraith said:

"I am informed that as chairman of the house judiciary committee, now considering the Watson bill, you are empowered to call before that committee the secretary of war and the attorney general of the United States to ascertain the facts surrounding the mysterious official silence which invests the war slacker situation.

"I sincerely hope this will be done and that no means will be spared by your committee to bring to light the reasons which have actuated the war department, or whatever branch of the government is responsible, in failing to publish the names of known slackers.

"The American Legion is unwilling that those who deserted their country and defied the law in the hour of national peril should go unpunished for their treachery."

Long Roll of Dishonor.

The particular list referred to is the deserters who did not evade registration, but who failed to respond after registration. For months the war department has been threatening to publish this list and to take action against the deserters as rapidly as they may be apprehended.

The list as it now stands contains the names of 173,911 deserters. This is the total whittled down from an original list of 498,033 after investigations which brought about elimination of names of men who had been erroneously included or who, it had been found, had actually served in some capacity or who had been apprehended and the cases disposed of.

Why Secretary Baker still withholds the publication of the 173,911 is explained only by the repeated assertion that this number still may contain the names of men who do not belong there.

The statute of limitations, however, does not apply against men on this list, as a deserter in time of war may be apprehended and tried at any time. "The Manual of Courts Martial" specifically excepting deserters, mutineers, and murderers from the statute of limitations.

200 N. Y. JOBLESS SEIZE CHURCH BY SQUATTERS 'LAW'

Will Be Housed and Fed During Idleness.

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Two hundred unemployed men, who marched up the Bowery and invaded the chapel and parish house of St. Mark's-in-the-Bouwerie, 288 East Tenth street, today received the consent of the trustees of the church to retain possession of the place.

Beds and two meals a day will be provided for them until they get work. The marchers took possession by what the "commander of the army," Urbain Ledoux, formerly American consul to Prague, called "squatters' rights."

Give Coppers a Surprise.

The men, shabby and unkempt, gathered on the Bowery at Manhattan bridge. They formed two companies of 100 each and marched quietly in military formation. Before they had gone two blocks they were stopped by two patrolmen, who permitted them to continue when convinced they were "only going to church."

St. Mark's chapel is the meeting place of the foreign congregation affiliated with St. Mark's-in-the-Bouwerie. The Rev. Dr. Guthrie said he was glad the jobless men had a shelter and recalled that he had voluntarily opened his church on New Year's eve to a similar contingent.

Rebuke to Municipality.

"May the churches do their little to show themselves worthy of the confidence of the friendless and surely the community will not compel the churches long to lend themselves to such irregular use," Dr. Guthrie said.

"Can a great, generous community afford to have inadequate means for sheltering with self-respect the helpless and homeless? Should it merely regret the hard times and let the unemployed starve? Build jails and asylums for the criminal and insane, hospitals for the sick, and have no provision for the noncriminal, sane, and well who cannot find work?"

Von Tirpitz Contemplates the Future and Is Gloomy

MUNICH, Bavaria, Jan. 4.—Admiral von Tirpitz, who was the German naval secretary for the first two years of the war, does not believe "a kindly fate will give Germany two hundred years to revive, as after the Thirty Year's war, because of the surrounding hostile nations." He makes this known in an article written for a South German publication.

PRISONER'S KISS BREAKS UP COURT AT MURDER TRIAL

Boldly Caresses Victim's Widow; She Swoons.

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Panic gripped the crowd at the George B. Nott murder trial here today when Elwood G. Wade, 23 year old milk peddler, on trial for Nott's murder, leaned over as he was passing Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson Nott, widow of the murdered man, and kissed her full upon the lips.

With a scream Mrs. Nott leaped to her feet just as Deputy Sheriff Frank Pasanella landed with his fist on young Wade's jaw.

Wade's pretty young wife, sitting a few feet from Mrs. Nott, the "other woman in the case," screamed, threw her hands to her face, and then, with a moan, fainted into the arms of Wade's mother.

Other Woman in Hysterics.

Wade smiled as the deputy sheriff rushed him through the prisoners' pen to the basement of the courthouse when it appeared that the crowd was going to seize him.

Mrs. Nott also is held on a charge of first degree murder in connection with her husband's death. She went into hysterics following Wade's kiss.

"Take her out," yelled the crowd.

Two deputy sheriffs lifted her in their arms and rushed her from the room. It was the second time during the day that the widow of the murdered man had been carried out.

Collapses at Murder Recital.

When Mrs. Nott had been hurried from the room and smelling salts and icewater had restored Mrs. Wade to consciousness, deputy sheriffs quelled the riot in the chamber.

Medical Examiner Samuel M. Carlick's matter of fact recital of the way in which the body had been carved up with the fourteen inch butcher knife, after Nott had been shot three times and his head crushed, was what caused Mrs. Nott to collapse earlier in the trial.

MAUDE ADAMS TO APPEAR ON STAGE IN FALL

New York, Jan. 4.—Reports current for many months that Miss Maude Adams had retired permanently from the stage were met tonight with an announcement by A. L. Erlanger and Charles B. Dillingham that she would make a reappearance under their management early next fall.

"Miss Adams has never had any intention of giving up her work as an actress," the announcement said. "She is at present in splendid health, having completely recovered from the illness that compelled her to abandon her tour in the autumn of 1918."

It was said that in addition to appearing in regular production each fall, Miss Adams would be seen every spring in Shakespeare and other classics.

AIRMEN MISSED FATE IN HUDSON'S BAY BY AN HOUR

Thought It N. Y. State; Ate Carrier Pigeons.

Cochrane, Ont., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Reports just received from the Anglican minister at Moose Factory, the Hudson's Bay post on James' bay at the estuary of the Moose river, eighty miles north of here, say the three officers of the United States navy balloon came down fifteen miles northwest of Moose Factory on Dec. 14.

Having left New York on the 13th, they thought they were still in New York state. They were in the clouds most of the time and came down because they thought they heard a dog barking.

Had Eaten Carrier Pigeons.

From 1:30 p. m. on the 14th and during the 15th and 16th, they were lost in the brush and gave up hope of reaching civilization.

Fortunately on the 17th they came to the Moose river and found tracks. They later caught up to an Indian, Tom Marks, who was out hunting, but was evidently afraid of the uniforms, with one of the three walking in his underwear.

Absence of severe frost saved them from perishing. They had eaten two of their three carrier pigeons. When they arrived at Moose Factory, where they were cared for by the Hudson Bay company's people, they soon recovered from their privations and hardships.

Landed Just in Time.

A trip was made to recover the balloon but it was unsuccessful and another trip was to be made before leaving on Dec. 26 by dog team for Cochrane, where they are expected to arrive late this week.

A letter from the Anglican minister, the Rev. Haythornthwaite, dated Dec. 22, says the men could not have stald up much longer than a few hours, as they had already thrown out most of their things and were anxiously looking for some habitation. Another hour and they would have been over Hudson bay and lost for good.

CARUSO NEVER TO SING AS OF OLD, DR. EDGAR SAYS

Long Rest in Italy for Tenor, Expert's Advice.

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—The prophesy that Enrico Caruso's voice may never be the same again was contained in an interview obtained by James Whittaker, published in the Daily News here. Discussing empyema, the disease which has afflicted the great tenor, Dr. Thomas W. Edgar, editor of the Western Medical Review, declared that Caruso will not sing again this year and will never again have the same great lung power he possessed before his recent illness.

"Empyema is the most serious condition that can follow lung diseases such as pleurisy and pneumonia," said Dr. Edgar. "It is usually an indication that there is a weak spot in the lung. That weak spot may be the result of an injury or a tubercular condition."

Bruised by Fall on Stage.

The medical authority pointed out that Caruso had experienced an accident a few weeks before his illness, when, during the temple scene in "Samson and Delilah," he stumbled and fell. It is possible he was struck in the ribs then, an inner bruise resulting.

In performing the empyema operation about an inch of rib is extracted and then the pleura—the covering of the lung—is snipped open. In a healthy chest the pleura and lung tissues lie so close together they are almost one. In Caruso, however, the two membranes were separated by quarts of poisoned matter, which it was the object of the operation to withdraw.

"Under no circumstances," Dr. Edgar asserted, "will Caruso's pleural cavity be completely drained for at least six weeks. The wound in his side will be kept open that long. True convalescence will not begin until the wound is closed.

Vital Faculties Weakened.

"Meanwhile, in all empyema cases a gradual weakening of all the vital faculties takes place. The poison travels. It attacks the heart, the kidneys, the blood, everything.

"My prognosis is that Caruso will recover slowly, and only after a long rest in a high, dry place. If such a place can be found in his native Italy, the psychological effect would be very good."

At present the famous tenor is being kept in his suite at the Vanderbilt hotel, where his physicians reported today his condition was improving.

Seaplanes Delay Departure from Banderas Bay, Mex.

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 4.—The naval seaplane squadron flying from San Diego to the Panama canal will not take wing from Banderas Bay, Mexico, for Acapulco on the fourth leg of the flight until daybreak Thursday, according to radio reports today.

JAPAN HINTS AT U. S. WAR IN PLEA FOR CHINA PACT

Is Willing to Make Concessions to Peking.

[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

SHANGHAI, Jan. 4.—Yukicki Obato, the Japanese minister to China, has been instructed to make a "secret and tactful" arrangement with China for united action with Japan, according to the Peking correspondent of the Shun Pao, the leading Chinese daily in central China. The correspondent is said to have received his information from a leading diplomat in Peking.

Instructions to Envoy.

"As there are signs of approaching hostilities between Japan and the United States, and a close friendship exists between China and Japan, the two countries should speedily arrange measures for their mutual protection. You should arrange to make a secret and tactful arrangement with the Chinese government for united action."

The correspondent says two telegrams on the matter were sent to the Chinese ministry for foreign affairs by the Japanese foreign minister. The first telegram, he said, declared Japan had decided to make concessions to China in connection with the Hung Chun affair because "relations between Japan and America were growing worse daily."

Secrecy Is Maintained.

It is understood Mr. Obato has been instructed thus, although the utmost secrecy is being maintained on the subject.

In the second telegram the Chinese foreign ministry was actually approached to open negotiations for the settlement of the Hung Chun affair on a basis of complete evacuation by the Japanese troops and intrusting the policing of the area to the Chinese.

The Chinese ministry is said to have been instructed to demand indemnity for damage done to Chinese property by Japanese soldiers and a guarantee that similar incidents would not occur in the future.

BACK ALIEN-LAND ACT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—Japanese objections to racial discrimination in this country would not be met, Senator Pheland, Democrat, California, said today, by the enactment of a general anti-alien land ownership bill in California as a substitute for the anti-alien bill adopted by referendum in the state last November and affecting particularly Japanese nationals by its clause prohibiting ownership of land by aliens ineligible to citizenship.

Japanese officials, Senator Phelan said, contend that a general anti-alien land ownership law in California would not meet the question of race discrimination and that so long as there are citizenship disqualifications for Japanese and not for other aliens such discrimination will exist.

Senator Johnson's View.

At the same time Senator Johnson, Republican, California, expressed a disposition to stand on the anti-alien law enacted in November and to oppose considering a general anti-alien bill, which, he added, would only complicate unnecessarily the situation.

"Even were such a treaty secured," he said, "the Japanese would still insist upon the right of citizenship because, they assert, every other alien could obtain citizenship and then hold land, while the Japanese could not acquire citizenship and would not, therefore, be on equality with other aliens."

JOHN L. ETHERIDGE.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 4.—John L. Etheridge, president of Morris Bros., Inc., bond house, was released tonight from the county jail, where he had been held since his arrival here Monday on larceny charges in connection with the closing of the bond house. He was arrested in Minneapolis. Etheridge's release followed the posting of $20,000 bonds by friends after the bond of $110,500 which originally had been set had been reduced upon recommendation of the district attorney.

GERMAN SWINDLE KING SAFE UNTIL HE MEETS YANKS

BY GEORGE SELDES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

BERLIN, Jan. 4.—Nominated for president of the Amalgamated Society of Swindlers is Robert Oerthel of Dresden, Saxony, who, thanks to the watchfulness of the American military police at Coblenz, has been put in jail after a futuristically spotted career throughout Europe.

Oerthel's first stunt was to play insane when he was forced to join the German army. He was placed in a hospital, where he made love to his nurse and finally eloped with her. He wrote to many county surrogates asking copies of birth certificates, signing many names, and after the armistice he obtained an American certificate.

Meets Marshal Foch.

Following the German revolution Oerthel joined the soldiers' soviet in Dresden, becoming commander. He went to the French prison camp at Holzminden, where he freed every one, and, in company with French officers, visited Marshal Foch after removing the red band from his hat. Foch gave him a letter to Gen. Du Pont.

Under the name of Baron Golffstein, Oerthel was made a director of the French prisoners' camps and conferred daily with the French embassy and the Roumanian and Spanish missions.

Made Red Cross Director.

Later he was made a director in the International Red Cross and was given the highest credentials by the Czecho-Slovaks.

As Golffstein he used his high position to engage in every kind of smuggling and gained a fortune. But foolishly he entered the zone of occupation to sell cocaine. There the American doughboys, despite his title of baron and his credentials from the interallied commission, arrested him and sent him to Moabit in Berlin.

POLAND NEEDS AID TO STAVE OFF STARVATION

U. S. Relief Body Tells of Sufferings.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The following condensation of a report on the food situation in Poland, made by an American relief administration expert, shows the appalling situation facing the Polish government in its effort to supply the people with an adequate ration:

Last year the Polish government imported practically all food supplies from the United States on credit advanced by the American government. About 250,000 tons of grain were imported.

Needs of the People.

The government is attempting to furnish all classes of the population with a basic ration of 180 grammes of flour, which is equal to 225 grammes of grain. Heavy manual laborers and soldiers are given an additional allowance. This basic ration is by no means sufficient in a country where other kinds of food are so scarce, and it is probable that it comprises not more than two-thirds as much as the normal individual ate before the war.

With last year's imports it was impossible for the government to meet this low requirement, and it will be utterly impossible to even approach it this year unless large shipments are brought in.

Production Falls Off.

This year's yield of rye, owing to unfavorable weather conditions, was reduced from last year's figure of sixteen bushels to the acre to ten bushels.

The Polish government has purchased 35,000 tons of grain in America and 150,000 tons in Roumania, but it must provide transportation for the Roumanian grain, and it is doubtful, with the scarcity of coal and the condition of the rolling stock, whether it can obtain more than a small portion of this.

Yanks Sold $8,191,008,468 Goods to World in 1920

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—The United States department of commerce estimates American exports for the calendar year of 1920 at $8,191,008,468 and imports at $5,468,053,460. December exports probably were $675,000,000 and imports $320,000,000.

UNCLE SAM IS GRUFF TO YANKEE ADMIRAL'S KIDS

Halts 7 Russians He Would Adopt.

New York, Jan. 4.—Seven Russian children, brought here for adoption by Rear Admiral Newton A. McCully, former American high commissioner at Sebastopol, were ordered excluded from the country by an immigration board of inquiry at Ellis island today.

The admiral had played Santa Claus to them all the way from their native land. They were to be his wards and his heirs, sharing his home at Washington and enjoying all the educational facilities he could give them.

Admiral Will Fight.

But the admiral announced he immediately would take an appeal to the secretary of labor at Washington, that he was ready to post as many and as high bonds as would be asked, and that he intended to fight.

In the meantime the children will be detained at Ellis island.

The technical exclusion ruling of Ellis island officials was that the children were "liable to become public charges."

Three other Russian children were to come to America later for adoption by the admiral, making his brood ten. This would keep him very busy during all shore leaves, he said, as he is a bachelor.

Another "Solemn Referendum"?

His niece, in charge of his Washington home during his absence, will help him care for the children, Admiral McCully said, adding that he expected she would be "just as tickled as I am."

Admiral McCully's youngsters are all "Russian bluebloods," he declared, explaining that he looked up their pedigrees. Now he is ready to give them his name.

Brand new clothes were the first thing he ordered for them.

The names of Admiral McCully's seven wards are: Nikolai Smnov, 12; Loudmila Manetzkaya, 11; Anastasia Sherbatov, 10; Nina Furinan, 8; Fedor Pozko, 4; Ninotaski Klimenko, 3, and Eugenia Selifanova, 19, in charge of the others. Eugenia has been trained as a nurse.

A. & P. TEA STORE ROBBED.

Three armed colored men held up and robbed an Atlantic and Pacific Tea company store at 63 East Forty-third street shortly after dark last night, escaping with $100 from the cash drawer and a small sum they took from customers. H. C. Prewitt, proprietor, was struck on the head with a revolver.

BAVARIA KEEPS UP ARMED FORCE AS ALLIES RAVE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

BERLIN, Jan. 4.—The Bavarian [illegible] sitting tight. The Einwohnerwehr and the Orgesch, both armed civilian defense organizations, remain intact with rifles, machine guns, and cannon stored and hidden, while in Berlin a great battle is raging over the entente and German notes.

Bavaria does not believe that France will occupy Frankfort again because she feels that the first French move across the zone of occupation would result in a wave of feeling throughout the world against a further march into Germany. Nor does Bavaria believe that France will occupy the Ruhr district, because she feels such a move would unite the widely separated German factions, the patriotic spirit would flame up, leading, perhaps, to violence and bloodshed.

ALLIES TO HEAR FOCH REPORT.

PARIS, Jan. 4.—It is officially announced that a conference of the allied premiers will be held in Paris toward the end of January, when Marshal Foch's report on German disarmament and the question of German reparations will be considered. The Greek situation also will be discussed.

ALD. MAX TELLS HOW HE KNOCKED OLD H. C. L. COLD

Talks Committee Out of $10,000 for 1921.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

Max Adamowski is a blushing violet of the aldermanic variety, but he proclaimed yesterday that his council H. C. L. committee had saved the public "100 times its cost." That cost was $10,000, therefore Max claims $1,000,000 saving.

That was on food alone. To that might be added free pie, free coffee, and free bread which Max says he has obtained in "the principal hotels" of Chicago. Next, he promised to reduce the price of gasoline.

"Leave it to me," exclaimed the modest and ambitious Max. "I'm not afraid of John D. Rockefeller. I'll tackle John D. any day," and he straightened up as for action.

Max is a bear. Not because he weighs 300 pounds, but because he admits he broke the sugar market last summer. Many in the world don't know it, but Max and his committee acknowledge that they routed the sugar bulls of this and several other countries.

How the Sugar Market Fell.

This committee "began an exhaustive investigation," it avers, "and found there was an abundance of sugar in this country and an excellent supply in prospect as soon as the new crop came in. The facts were gathered and verified and given to the press, and within forty-eight hours sugar fell 3 cents a pound in New York and has been tobogganing ever since," reaching a level of 7¾ cents.

So Max and his committee assert: "This one act of the committee not only broke the market, but saved consumers of Chicago and the nation millions of dollars."

Then the committee hopped to the front and saved dollars for hotel guests by reducing the price of foods. They prevailed upon the hotels "to agree, wherever possible, to cut prices from 20 to 30 per cent," and Max reports that "this agreement was carried out in good faith by the principal hotels."

Cites Some Reductions.

He cites the following as showing the reductions in prices of portions, May 1 to Dec. 15":

Food.	Per Cent.	Food.	Per Cent.
Soup	20 to 50	Sandwiches	20 to 75
Salads	20 to 50	Potatoes	20 to 40
Beef	20 to 40	Milk	25 to 75
Pork	15 to 50	Coffee	25 to 100
Veal	20 to 40	Bread	50 to 100
Fish	20 to 50	Pies	25 to 100

Of course, when the price of a food is reduced 100 per cent the patron provides only the tip, but Max refrains from telling the names of "the principal hotels" which serve free pie, bread, and coffee. But he does admit that some restaurants have reduced prices very little and others have reduced the size of portions.

Others Get Some Glory.

Max claims no glory for the drop in the price of coal, and he wants it distinctly understood that he is not responsible for the failure of the landlords to reduce rents. That subject, he says, is being admirably handled by Ald. Mulcahy of curfew fame.

Neither should Max be blamed because his committee did not take a junket last summer.

These are only a few of the accomplishments of the committee, but they are sufficient to indicate how diligent Max was yesterday in presenting a plea for an appropriation for his committee. On the above showing the finance committee was sufficiently impressed to vote Max $10,000 for 1921 expenditures.

"KNOW YOUR CITY"

Miss Olga Law instructing Y. W. C. A. class regarding the "sights" and institutions that help to make Chicago great.
[TRIBUNE Photo.]

THE next time Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Ben drop into Chicago to pay a visit to the niece who works in the city and lives at the Y. W. C. A., said niece is going to know how to show 'em the sights, by gum!

Miss Olga Law of the University of Chicago yesterday began a "know your city" class, and more than two score girls of the Central Y. W. C. A. department already have enrolled.

The new class will learn all about the Art institute, the Field museum, Hull house, the stockyards, and the hundreds of other Chicago features. The course will include trips to various points of interest about the city.

More than 800 girls have enrolled in the various Y. W. C. A. classes for the new term.

Nonpartisan League Meets Defeat in N. D. Legislature

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 4.—Independent forces won the first test of strength over the Non-Parisan league faction in the house of the North Dakota legislature, which convened today, having a majority in electing officers. Representative L. L. Twichell, Fargo, was elected speaker, 58 to 53. C. L. Dawson, Beach, was named chief clerk.

In the senate the Non-Partisan league won out, electing William Prater, Bismarck, as secretary, 25 to 24. Several roll calls on other questions resulted in a similar vote.

Suit for $185.65 Asks Auto Club Be Dissolved

The Stearns company, dealers in kitchen utensils, yesterday petitioned the Superior court to dissolve the Chicago Automobile club and appoint a receiver.

SUICIDE STORY TOLD TO POLICE; HOAX SUSPECTED

The police are somewhat mystified at the actions of two young men, riding in an automobile, who visited three stations yesterday, in each asking that a search be made for a relative who they thought had committed suicide, but each time failing to give the name of the relative or their own names.

They first appeared at the detective bureau and breathlessly described the "relative" as 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighing about 155 pounds. He was a prominent business man, they said, and had left his office Monday night, leaving a note that stated he intended to commit suicide.

The two young men later appeared at the Hyde Park and the Grand Crossing stations with the same story.

A police message was sent out directing a search of the lake shores for evidence of a suicide and to search Oakwoods cemetery, as the youths declared the man might go there to carry out his threat, as his wife is buried there.

The police are now not certain whether a hoax was not played on them.

Shows the Advantages of Lakes to Ocean Waterway

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 4.—Water transportation from lake ports to the Atlantic seaboard would add about 10 cents a bushel to the price of Iowa grain and a half cent a pound to live stock, according to estimates by Charles P. Craig of Duluth, executive director of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association. Mr. Craig conferred with Gov. W. L. Harding today on the project.

O, FOR A NEW BEAU BRUMMEL, TAILORS PRAY

Have Frills, but No One'll Wear 'Em.

Gloom settled over the meeting of the International Association of Clothing Designers at the Congress hotel yesterday. Alas! The doctor is dressing just as does the actor, the laborer just as the lawyer—all men are dressing alike.

"This tendency towards a standardization of dress is ruining us," exclaimed Samuel Dryer of Alschuler, Dryer & Co. "While automobile engine manufacturers are meeting to establish an ideal—a standard—and other manufacturers are striving to bring about a model for their products, we are trying to break up standardization.

"We cannot sell clothes unless men become as they were before the war—individuals in dress as well as in other characteristics. As it is now, the business suit is working overtime. Everybody is in uniform, as it were."

Ideas of Designers.

This is the way the clothing designers would dress some of those in the various walks of life:

THE DOCTOR—Dark, somber, easy fitting models, with a paucity of frills.

THE LABORER—Loose sleeves and easy fitting coats and wide trousers.

THE LAWYER—A model something on the same order as the doctor's, but a bit more snappy.

And the college boys' suits! Where have they gone? That's one of the woes of the designers, who find that they can design one model and clothe the whole masculine world.

Men "Not Educated."

"Men are not like women," said one of the unhappy designers. "Although it is true today that the shopgirl is dressing the same as the society dame, the styles change every season, and the designers get out something new. But men won't stand for radical changes every year. Men are not educated."

Nor is man's conservatism the only worry the designers have. Production has been cut 50 per cent, Secretary M. M. Holtz announced yesterday.

"It's due to the public's sudden economical streak," said Secretary Holtz. "Why, here in Chicago half of the clothing workers are out of jobs!"

Nevertheless the clothing designers are going to show how the modern clothes are made. One of the features of the four day session is the designing and tailoring of clothes in the Florentine room. On the final day the completed garment will be shown.

O MIN!

Here's Irish Colleen of 80 Who Is Anxious to Solve Your Servant Problem for You.

MISS MARTHA REEDER.

HOUSEWIVES, here is a chance to solve your servant troubles. Miss Martha Reeder, an Irish colleen of 80, can sew, wash, iron, and is a great hand at taking care of children. Moreover, she has just left her last place, "somewhere on the west side," and is looking for employment.

Martha was found looking for work yesterday at Van Buren and Wells streets. She had two bank books showing deposits of more than $2,500.

"I've worked all my life and expect to keep right on," she said last night at the South Clark street annex, where she is staying until she can find a place. "I left my last place because they had two mischievous boys who made me nervous with their pranks. But I love children."

So, Mrs. Housewife, there you are. Martha is a hard worker, is easy to get along with, and is not thinking of getting married. She's been single all her life, she says, and is too old to begin training a husband.

ELKUS, EX-ENVOY TO TURKS, HOME FROM ALAND ROW

New York, Jan. 4.—Abram I. Elkus, former ambassador to Turkey, returned today on the steamship La Lorraine from Europe, after sitting with the Aland islands commission of the league of nations.

He spent more than a month with the commission which was appointed to decide the future status of the Aland islands as between the claims of Sweden and Finland. The commissioners met at Stockholm.

Mr. Elkus did not officially represent the United States, attending the hearings, merely as a distinguished citizen of a nation that is neutral in the Aland islands controversy.

RICH WOMEN'S PSYCHIC ADVISER SOUGHT BY LAW

'Indian Chief' Called Fraud by State Officials.

The Rev. Chief Rheaumont, president of the Ingersoll Psychic Research Society of America, Inc., and self-styled White Earth Indian and chieftain of 150 Indian tribes, graduate of Carlisle and of a chiropractic college, is in trouble again.

THE REV. CHIEF RHEAUMONT.

This time his nemesis is the Illinois department of registration and education.

For many suns Chief Rheaumont—whose flowing locks are over a foot in length—has been materializing spirits and curing all ills through his "marvelous magnetic personality."

Bejeweled Women Seek Him.

Lately Rheaumont has been operating in Chicago again. His seances have been attended mostly by women—women in costly furs and wearing many jewels predominating.

Outside his place of business at 5620 Washington boulevard limousines and roadsters drew up, discharged their occupants, and waited sometimes for hours.

Claims His Spirits Frauds.

She claims he committed fraudulent materialization not once but many times. He used, she says, "a long white mask to cover his face, a long white robe that enveloped him from head to foot, a high white collar, and other white material," and that "he refused to go under test conditions many times."

Recently his activities attracted the attention of Dr. Francis Richardson and Miss Jane Copley of the department of registration. Inquiry, they say, revealed that his scholarship claims were false, and a warrant is out for him. It is also alleged that he has been arrested many times. In Zanesville, O., it is said, he was arrested for contributing to the delinquency of a 15 year old girl over whom he had been appointed guardian.

DAHLBERG WINS SPEAKERSHIP; HOLADAY QUITS

Gov. Lowden's Message to Be Delivered Today.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—The Small-Smith-Lundin Republican combination won out all along the line in tonight's caucuses preceding the organization of the Fifty-second Illinois general assembly that will be perfected tomorrow.

Gotthard A. Dahlberg, Chicago, the city hall's choice for the house speakership, was unanimously nominated by the Republican house caucus tonight. The last obstacle to the domination of the machinery vanished at 6 o'clock, when William P. Holaday of Vermilion county withdrew and released the votes pledged to him.

The approval of the Anti-Saloon league to the Dahlberg candidacy came early in the morning.

Mr. Dahlberg will be elected speaker tomorrow shortly after high noon, with ninety-five Republican votes.

Other caucus selections were: Bert H. McCann of Bloomington, clerk; Miss Anna H. Young of Marion, postmistress; Capt. J. A. Haines of Bloomington, doorkeeper.

The program tonight is that the two branches of the general assembly will be organized officially tomorrow. Gov. Lowden wants to deliver his final message immediately and a joint session is arranged for 1 o'clock. At the same session, the joint session will canvass the vote for state officers and declare elected the candidates as returned by the state canvassing board.

Inauguration Next Monday.

This proceeding, if carried out, insures the inauguration of Gov. Small and the new state officers next Monday. The two houses are to agree as to the inaugural committee on arrangements and the program will be announced tomorrow night.

The withdrawal of Representative Holaday as a speakership candidate had been indicated early in this morning's roundup of arriving legislators. There was a last minute disposition for delay until the arrival of David E. Shanahan, three times speaker. His flat statement that he was not interested one way or the other in the speakership seemed to close the case.

Senate Caucus Unfinished.

The Republican senate caucus adjourned tonight until 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning with the election of a president pro tem. the pending matter. The question to be settled is whether there can legally be an organization of the senate without the election of the president pro tem. and a secretary, and it will be put up to Attorney General Brundage.

The senate Republican caucus determined to make Miss Theresa Corman, secretary to retiring Lieut. Gov. Oglesby, temporary secretary of the senate—the first time that such an honor will have been given to a woman in Illinois.

The house Democratic caucus failed to assemble, but informally agreed on Representative Garesche of Madison as the minority leader. Representative John P. Devine of Dixon and Michael Fahy of Toluca are probable contestants tomorrow morning in the formal vote.

ZION CITY GIRL IS HURT IN LEAP FROM BURNING SCHOOL

ESTHER BILLS. [Photo Melvin H. Sykes.]

Word was received yesterday that Miss Esther Bills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bills of Zion City, was injured recently when she was forced to leap from the third floor of the burning dormitory of the Lewisburg seminary at Lewisburg, W. Va.

With Miss Bills, her roommate, Miss Katherine Marshall, daughter of Mrs. Clara M. Marshall of 5654 Ridge avenue, Chicago, was also forced to leap for her life.

Details of how the two girls were trapped in the burning dormitory had not been received yesterday by the parents of the two girls. Neither one, however, was seriously hurt, but both were forced to remain under a physician's care for some time.

SHOOTS AND KILLS SELF.

CABINET PLACE FOR UNION MAN, LABOR'S DEMAND

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Marion, O., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—President Elect Harding was informed today that union labor throughout the country, particularly the railroad men, want a union labor man named as a member of the cabinet. W. M. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, brought the message to Mr. Harding and after obtaining certain information to carry back to his followers, said he was satisfied the president elect was labor's friend. He could not say yet what the verdict of the union men would be on the Esch-Cummins bill, which Mr. Harding defended with vigor throughout the campaign. The discussion largely centered about the cabinet.

Schwab and Hoover Mentioned.

It has been reported that Mr. Harding was looking outside labor circles for a secretary of labor. Charles M. Schwab and Herbert Hoover have been considered. Samuel Gompers is said to be friendly to the Hoover appointment.

But the rank and file of union labor demands that one of labor's own group be appointed. It is one of the cabinet posts about which the chief controversy is raging. Names of various union leaders have been presented to Harding as available.

World League Discussed.

Peter S. Grosscup, former federal judge in Chicago, talked with Mr. Harding on an association of nations.

"I have been in favor of an association of nations that would leave with the governments the final power of decision in all questions coming up for action," he said after the conference. "I do not like the idea of a surrender of the final word to any organization aside from the governments themselves. I favor The Hague court of arbitration and the organization of an international court to determine all questions that the nations can afford to have decided, not affecting national honor or vital interests."

TALK OF CENTRAL BANK

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Creation of a central bank to supplement or supplant the present federal reserve bank system, indicated in dispatches from Marion as a likely feature of Republican policy, is not an immediate possibility.

Senator Curtis, Kansas, said that what he had attempted to do was to point out that the administration of the federal reserve bank system had not been satisfactory to the agricultural states of the west, and that unless it were made more effective in meeting credit demands there would be a strong effort to create a central bank, and either make the present system subordinate or eliminate it altogether. A majority of senate Republicans favor the establishment of a central bank.

N. W. U. ALUMNI DECIDE TO OPEN GENERAL OFFICE

A change in the constitution of the alumni of Northwestern university was decided on at a meeting of the general board of the organization at a luncheon in the Hotel La Salle yesterday. Twelve members of the board were present. Dr. George Craig Stewart, pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal church of Evanston, presided. It was decided to open up within the next year a general alumni office either in Chicago or Evanston.

"Many other university alumni have such organizations, and we decided to have one, too," said Dr. Stewart. "The plan will go into effect this year."

PRICE ON HEAD SPURS HUNT FOR MULLEN'S SLAYER

Eddie Morris Named by Pal as Murderer.

Police lines are tightening about the city in the search for Eddie Morris, alias Foster, accused by his pal, James Crosby, as the slayer of Policeman Mullen.

EDWARD MORRIS

Two rifle squads are scouring the city. Every man connected with the force has been given a photograph of Morris, and yesterday Chief of Police Fitzmorris posted a reward of $50 for the capture of Eddie McBride, implicated as the driver of the car in which the alleged slayer escaped.

McBride also is said to have driven the car that escaped after a running battle with a police rifle squad on the south side early yesterday.

Morris in $18,000 Robbery?

An attempt to connect Morris with the $18,000 robbery of the Roling Brothers jewelry store at 2310 Milwaukee avenue yesterday led to an indefinite identification. Andrew Roling, one of the partners, told the police one of the two stickup men looked something like a photograph of Morris. The apparel was different from that Morris wore on the night of the murder and the height did not correspond.

Girls Tell of Shooting.

Miss Genevieve Johnson, 215 West Forty-third street, the 15 year old girl who confessed she was a member of the party in the Lincoln Gardens when the shooting took place, has given the police a vivid description of the cold blooded murder. Her story is verified by Clara Heggins, 16, of 1347 Bradley place, and Victoria Sypior, 16, of 1344 Sloan street, all companions of the slayer at the gardens and witnesses of the shooting.

Tells of the Murder.

Crosby broke down after the inquest yesterday and made a complete confession of his part in the killing. He asserted Morris was the slayer. He said they had intended to rob the café.

Police are also looking for the wife of Eddie Morris. She was not present at the murder, but she is said to have directed many holdups pulled by the two men being sought. Morris had been wanted since July 22, 1919, in connection with a confidence game.

Two other girls are being held as witnesses. They are Miss Mae Roder, 2252 Cleveland avenue, and Miss Margaret Burns, 104 North La Salle street, check girls. They saw the murder.

Andrew Roling, one of the owners of the Roling Bros. jewelry store at 2310 Milwaukee avenue, said a picture of Morris looked something like one of the men who bound him and an employé yesterday and escaped with $10,000 in jewelry and currency.

STAGE MUST QUIT KIDDING PULPIT, METHODISTS SAY

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Cartoonists, writers, and actors were assailed today by the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal church for "contemptuous treatment" of Protestant ministers in the press, the movies, and on the speaking stage.

The board announced that it proposed to exert every effort during the year to stop this treatment of the Protestant clergy, which, it declared, has become general.

"On the stage and in motion pictures," says a statement by the board today "the Protestant minister is seldom presented except as an effiminate fool. The members of the Roman Catholic church do not tolerate such treatment of their priesthood. The time has come when Protestants also should not tolerate other than courteous treatment of their religion and ministry."

TWO HUNTERS DIE IN BLIZZARD ON ALASKAN ISLE

Kethikan, Alaska, Jan. 4.—Assistant Lighthouse Keeper Herb Scott of Mary island, and Leslie Williams, 17, high school boy, are dead, and Charles Chapman, another high school boy, is seriously ill as a result of a hunting trip started last week when the the two boys went to Mary island to visit Scott.

They proceeded only four miles inland but on their way back were caught in a blizzard. Searching parties found Williams' body on the beach at the foot of a cliff over which he had fallen.

Scott's body was found yesterday within half a mile of the lighthouse and his trail showed he had crawled more than two miles.

BIG DEATH TOLL LAID TO FAULTY GAS FIXTURES

Coroner Bares Results of Investigation.

Faulty gas fixtures take an annual toll of several hundred lives in Chicago. During the winter an average of thirty deaths a month result from accidental asphyxiation.

These facts, revealed by an investigation conducted by Coroner Peter M. Hoffman, are to be made the basis of a campaign for the immediate installation of "safety" features on gas fixtures throughout the city.

Coroner Bares Heavy Toll.

"The investigation which was completed yesterday shows the appalling death toll defective fixtures, cheap connections, and carelessly installed gas ranges are taking in Chicago," Coroner Hoffman said. "The situation is bad now and unless radical changes are made it will get worse."

The coroner's statistics show that during December thirty-one persons were accidentally asphyxiated. Inquests revealed six other deaths from asphyxiation which coroner's juries reported under the caption of "undetermined." They may have been accidental. Inquests into eight gas deaths resulted in verdicts of suicide. The total deaths in the month from gas poisoning was forty-five.

Majority Are Adults.

"The majority of deaths in the 'accidental' column were adults," the coroner said. "Usually they had died because rubber connections between gas jets and heating or cooking appliances had rotted or sagged away from the ceiling fixtures, allowing gas to escape. In some cases it developed the victims had intended to turn the gas off and instead had turned it on, due to faulty construction of valves.

"We are going to increase our efforts to get a more thorough inspection of gas fixtures. The number of accidental deaths would be cut in half if gas fixtures were more carefully installed and more thoroughly inspected."

WIFE FASTS 37 DAYS SO HUBBY MAY BE SAVED

Danville, Ill., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Mrs. Sadie E. Harrington, wife of Ernest S. Harrington, Danville business man, has not tasted food for thirty-seven days in the belief that her fasting and praying will save her husband, who refuses to join actively in her church work.

"She wants me to pray and shout and get out on the street and preach and give everything I have to the work of the church. I don't believe in that. If she wants to live she can live, if she wants to die she can die," said Harrington. "I guess they will have me up for murder or something, but I've done all I could for her."

Mrs. Harrington claims to be a minister of the Church of God. "I didn't know I would have to fast so long," she said, "but God has given me strength and courage and I will continue fasting until he grants my prayer."

EVANSTON MAY HIRE SLEUTHS TO GUARD WOMEN

Or Is It to Set Watch on the Police?

It was reported last night that the Evanston city council would hire a corps of private detectives. Whether the detectives would be used to escort women to their homes or to watch the police force was not vouchsafed.

The council met to discuss alleged police inefficiency—fifty-five women have been attacked along the north shore in the year which has just closed—but the aldermen spent most of their time dodging reporters. They met behind closed doors, and the reporters were trying to find out what the secrecy was all about.

Bars Crime Discussion.

At the opening of the meeting Ald. Ernest Palmer, chairman of the committee on police, announced the committee would hold a secret session at the close of the council meeting and discuss crime conditions. Mayor Pearsons then requested that no discussion of crime or the police department be had on the council floor.

After the committee meeting started two reporters were chased from fire escapes and Ald. Hiram McCullough shoved another away from the door of the council chamber. At the end of the committee meeting Ald. Palmer entered the mayor's office. A reporter knocked at the door and asked to speak to the mayor.

Grabbing the reporter by the shoulders, Mayor Pearsons rushed him out through the door. Two patrolmen then escorted the reporter from the building.

Hints at War on Crime.

Ald. E. W. K. Bailey said there was "vigorous work ahead for the police department" and that secret plans for combating crime that had been decided upon would be put into effect immediately. It was admitted one of the questions discussed was the reinstatement of George Peska, who was demoted from sergeant to patrolman some time ago.

Chief Charles W. Leggett remained late at his office to receive the news of the action decided upon, but became tired and went home before the session ended.

Drinks Bottle of Beer; Dies; Inquiry Starts

Upon the result of a chemist's analysis of a pint of beer will probably rest the solution of the mysterious death of Thomas F. Krumma of 1135 North Spaulding avenue, who died Monday, presumably of carbolic acid poisoning.

At noon Monday Krumma left the United States Tire company, where he was employed, with his lunch under his arm, and walked to the saloon of Paul Price at 1101 South State street. He ordered a bottle of beer and drank a little of it. Immediately he became weak and dizzy and in a moment had fallen over dead.

In three months the Character Analysis Club has outgrown its old quarters.

Over 150 of Chicago's most progressive citizens have joined and, realizing its true value, are our biggest boosters.

They know the practical benefit they are deriving from the "Right Way of Sizing Up People at Sight."

They realize how dearly they paid for the lack of this knowledge in the past.

A national organization, with branches in 150 different cities, has this comment on its annual convention program:

"Thursday, December Thirtieth.

The Right Way of Sizing Up People at Sight, and its Relation to Scientific Sales—
GORDON J. HARGRAVE.

(Mr. Hargrave is the only one who has reduced the science of character analysis to a practical, usable basis. By using the principles he sets forth, anyone can increase his sales—no matter if he is selling service or goods.)"

The laws of "The Right Way of Sizing Up People at Sight" are simple and easily understood. It is the only system that has no modifications and no exceptions.

An employer says: "One department with turnover of over 400% reduced to under 80% because we are now hiring the right person for the right job. It pays to analyze, and your system never fails."

DO NOT COMPLICATE NAVAL NEGOTIATIONS.

We share Senator Borah's reluctance to involve France and Italy in negotiations for a naval holiday. Neither power is likely to upset the naval balance sought or to embark upon an expansive naval program. Both France and Italy are otherwise engaged and will remain so for some time. To include them in negotiations would therefore merely complicate a sufficiently complicated problem. It promises the injection of questions and influences not germane to the object sought by us and might defeat or seriously embarrass the success of the project. The French and Italian representatives could hardly fail to make use of their votes for some national advantage. That would be their duty, but as a result the balance of influence might be seriously affected and a situation created which would compel one or another of the vitally interested powers to withdraw.

Have we not had enough of this sort of inept and impractical complication of essential problems? The Paris conference, by trying to do too much, succeeded indeed in doing too much, and the world today is paying a heavy price for this capital error.

It is suggested that politeness requires the inclusion of France and Italy. The suggestion leaves us cold. We have been left out of too many important treaties, arrangements, understandings, and negotiations which affected our interest to concede that France or Italy must be invited to sit in at negotiations of little importance to them and of great importance to us. About every treaty that blocked American principles and defeated American hopes of a durable peace in Europe was made behind our backs. It would be asinine to take chances on complicating our naval arrangements with Great Britain and Japan for the sake of an imaginary point of etiquette so frequently ignored of late at our expense.

Our concern is British and Japanese naval power; not French or Italian. Common sense directs that the negotiations should be confined to the interested parties.

PEP.

A recent incident in the business career of William J. Hastings, a real estate dealer, suggests a practical remedy for our present business inanition. If it could be bottled and dispensed as an industrial and business stimulant we would label it "Pep."

Mr. Hastings learned that a large eastern manufacturing company had decided to open an extensive plant in Indianapolis. He boarded the next train for the company's headquarters in Camden, N. J., won a hearing from the firm's president, put before him the advantages of certain property at Hammond, Ind., and eventually closed the deal for $300,000 to the satisfaction of the buyer, the seller, the city of Hammond, himself, and his firm.

Needless to say, the present general business depression has not depressed Mr. Hastings. Also, as a result of his energy and capability the community of Hammond will be to a considerable extent relieved of depression as the incoming factory employs men for remodeling its plant and then for making its products.

Such energy and activity have been important factors in the rise and success of Chicago. Our geographical position would not have developed a city here if there had not been ambitious, energetic, and resourceful men to improve the opportunities offered. The city has been built by the effort of individuals. It can continue to grow in wealth and importance by the effort of individuals. Such efforts overcome the handicaps of temporary business depression. When enough of these handicaps are overcome the depression ceases to exist.

That is a task which now confronts every business man in Chicago. Mr. Hastings has set an example of overcoming handicaps by individual effort which proves it can be done. If it can be done by one man in one line of business, why cannot it be done by another man in another line of business? Individual effort is needed. It will bring not only individual reward but a betterment of conditions throughout the city, state, and nation.

ARE THE ENGLISH SLIPPING?

The aristocracy of England, with a sturdy yeomanry, has been governing a large part of the world for a number of centuries. The yeomanry was there with its fists and the aristocracy with its courage and acquisitiveness. Sir Walter Raleigh and Bill Hawkins have gone a long way around the world and have picked up a considerable piece of it, proving that they were of a great breed.

Bombadier Wells and Joe Beckett have cracked tradition a little by letting Frenchmen lick them, and we really have been afraid a Chinaman would do it and dissolve the British empire on the spot. We have been consoled with the reflection that these English maulers were really terrible fighters, but each had a paper chin as a defect, which no man can help if he is born that way. Wells and Beckett probably could be kicked in the forehead by an elephant and not feel it, but a sharp jolt on the chin means a trip to the soft Marquesas for either of them.

This we offer in explanation of the theory that the English yeomanry is not really slipping, but it does not explain forebodings regarding the aristocracy. Victome De Sibour, a fascinating bachelor of an old French family, is engaged to Miss Violet Selfridge, daughter of Gordon Selfridge.

De Sibour, according to the London story, walked into Mr. Selfridge's London store a few months ago and asked Mr. Selfridge if there were any possibility of getting a start in business with him. The one time Chicago and now London merchant was attracted by the young Frenchman, took him in the store, and started him at the study of business. Now Miss Selfridge and De Sibour are engaged.

If the English aristocracy can allow a French nobleman to get away with that, to capture a charming American girl, inevitably attached to a great deal of English money, it is declining. The upper classes will have to stop chiding Beckett because he allowed Carpentier to slip one over on him before he could wake up. Is the aristocracy also asleep on its feet?

CUBA TAKEN IN HAND.

President Wilson has sent Judge Advocate General Enoch H. Crowder to Havana to confer with President Menocal. The Cuban presidential election is unsettled. The island has a financial crisis. It has extended the moratorium another month, and the government is about to go down for the third time. The United States will see that it does not.

Intervention may not be necessary. The American contingent, headed by Gen. Crowder, may be able to stabilize the political and financial conditions. If this cannot be done in this fashion, more complete measures will be taken. A competent government is assured Cuba by the Platt amendment, and that is the most satisfactory guaranty which the United States ever applied for the maintenance of government in other countries within its sphere of activity and responsibility.

The Platt amendment is considerate of the fact rather than the theory of self government. If Cuba in fact governs itself, the United States recognizes the fact. If Cuba fails to govern itself, the United States reëstablishes the fact.

The purposes of American intervention are not mistrusted, not even by the Cubans. They know that it does not mean retention of territory or exploitation. All nations know that if the United States takes over authority again in Cuba it will be only to prevent the breakdown of the Cuban government, and that when the government is on its feet the United States will withdraw again.

The Cubans have not proved that they can completely govern themselves. They have proved that they can do it with support in critical times. The result has been satisfactory to the United States and protective for Cuba. An extension of the policy to all the uncertain governments in the American sphere would produce the conditions which this part of the world needs for its best development.

THE COLOMBIA TREATY AGAIN.

Senator Thomas' argument in favor of the Colombia treaty should insure its defeat.

The charges against the late President Roosevelt seem to us contemptible in tone and erroneous in substance. A great service to America and the world was performed by a statesman against the obstruction of a handful of isthmian politicians, and we do not fear that Roosevelt's reputation in history or the honor of the United States will be compromised either by the truth of this great service or the one sided and superficial attacks of Democratic politicians.

DIVIDING THE SWAG.

Arrested for carrying a gun, and while out on bonds rearrested for the $15,000 robbery of the Ward Baking company, one Eddie Knox explains: "I paid a bondsman $200 to get me out on the gun case. It was going to cost me $175 more to fix the case, I was told, so I had to get the dough some way. That's why I agreed to help out in the Ward Baking company job. I got $600."

The case is cited by Chief Fitzmorris as one new example of a system whereby Chicago crooks are working for professional bondsmen. It means that either before or after the average holdup the robber divides the swag with the bondsman and so is free to continue his trade. It again calls attention to one phase of our state system of licensing crime. It is one more argument for the reënactment of the Barrett bond law or of some other law which will make property scheduled on such bonds really, not theoretically, collectible.

Scores of sensational cases have been noted in the last year in which criminals have bought their liberty through worthless bonds, and vanished. Important prosecutions have been thwarted. Vicious characters have been released to prey upon society. Yet it is a simple matter to end this phase of our crime problem. The legislature can do it—if it will.

CHILE-JAPAN.

Chile may have diplomatic understandings with Japan and indulge hostility towards the United States, but may also find that American and Chilean interests have common ground and that a Japanese agreement is not only artificial but contrary to interest. This seems to be touching Chilean comprehension even now, with the Japanese naval squadron about to make a significant courtesy visit. Chilean journals say that Chile cannot safely invite Japanese immigration and the resultant competition. It would be a good thing for the Americas if Chile would have its diplomacy search its real interests for a basis of understandings rather than permit it to voice an unjustifiable dislike of the United States.

Editorial of the Day

NEWSPAPERS AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS.

[Topeka Capital.]

English merchants criticise the London and English press for its discussion of prices, accusing the newspapers of bringing about a collapse of buying and a violent slump in prices. A manufacturer of textiles who stands high in the trade denounces the London Times particularly, because "English newspapers go all over the world and our cotton customers in other countries see these statements," he says, "and either hold off ordering or seek to cancel orders. We must stop talking slump; the world wants our goods and will pay a fair price if they are led to see what the fair price is."

We suppose, after all, there is nothing in economic forces, but the newspapers can bring about any sort of economic situation that they desire. They have far more power than they supposed they had.

Yet when the rage for buying was at its height, when working girls were wearing $5 silk stockings and $20 shoes, and ditch diggers were sporting $15 silk shirts, and merchants were beaming, the newspapers protested in vain against a reckless orgy of extravagance. It was not the newspapers that brought about such a state of mind.

Probably psychologic conditions can be affected by publicity and propaganda. The newspapers might be able to make everybody feel hopeful of the future, or depressed, thereby affecting business conditions somewhat. But with all their occult power the newspapers cannot put two dollars where there was only one dollar before in the bank reserves, or by a few passes convert a federal deficit into a federal asset, or double the average individual's savings bank account. Psychology may be important, but neither can psychology juggle deficits into balances, "vamp" physical conditions, or do anything more to economic facts than temporarily camouflage them, with the effect of putting off "the evil day." How people feel about it does not make or mar the law of gravitation. Regardless of newspapers and of psychology, "what goes up must come down."

A NEW YEAR GREETING.

Despite the fact
That murky clouds
Are hovering ominously
On all horizons,
And long-haired gents
With dirty fingernails
Argue Internationalism
Over poor food
In smelly restaurants,
And gibe at Christ
And Capital and Marriage
And other fundamentals
Of Civilization—
I still believe in
Soap and hot water,
The Republican Party,
Fat babies, privately reared,
The purgative qualities of castor oil,
And the rule of
A well directed majority.
And in closing
I heartily endorse
The epigram

Is a damned fool."

FEW changes inside the White House are contemplated. Mr. Borah wishes some of the wallpaper changed, and Mr. Johnson has suggested certain rearrangements of furniture; but otherwise things will be kept pretty much as they are.

THE OPEN SEASON ON LANDLORDS.

Sir: I met a friend some years ago in Dublin. He was carrying a brace of snipe. "That's all the rint I can git out of me tenants in the west," sez he. "And why," sez I, "don't you go down there and collect 'em?" "Do you think," sez he, "that the divil that hit those flyin' would miss me standin'"?

THERE is plenty of opera of great interest and beauty, and if the giving of opera were considered primarily from the music viewpoint we should have a chance to hear it; as it is we might as well live in the South Sea islands. Opera is the only branch of music which, in its highest and newest manifestations, is not accessible to Americans of cultivated taste.

AH THERE, BEN FRANKLIN!

[From the Buffalo, Ill., Register.]

We found a handkerchief plainly marked "B. F." in our chicken yard the other morning. We dare "B. F." to claim it. And if "B. F." comes snooping around again he may lose something nearer and dearer to him than a pocket handkerchief.

MR. SLASON THOMPSON is learning, via Vox Pop, that there are left-handed wood-choppers. We have a picture in memory of Tawab, the Indian, with one foot on the bow of a canoe and the other on a log, chopping through a barrier in the stream. He chopped both right and left, but whether he shifted his hands or maintained a right-hand golf grip throughout, we do not recall.

The Flavor Lasts.

Sir: Up in Wisconsin there was a skunk farm adjoining the railroad right of way, where thousands of the pretty little creatures were raised for their skins. On this particular night a large number of them, escaping through a break in the enclosure, started on a moonlight pilgrimage down the railroad track. When, a short time later, the express bore down on them, they bravely stood their ground, and, although many were killed, registered a unanimous and vigorous protest. It being summer time, the car windows were all open, and the awakened passengers emerged from their berths gasping for breath. At the next stop, a division point, even the car inspectors fled precipitately, and had to be coerced into performing their duties; and at each station thereafter, every one in sight suddenly had business elsewhere the minute the train arrived.
OLD TIMER.

APPARENTLY everybody in town read that personal asking for "information leading to the whereabouts of Jaques Seigneur, Frenchman, who died in 1879," and many ouija boards were dusted off and put in service again.

EVERYTHING WAS LOVELY.

[From the Warren Sentinel-Leader.]

A Chi[illegible]olden wedding was celebrated at the l[illegible]., and Mrs. Singer, when the children a[illegible] grandchildren gathered at their home and brought good things to eat and a lovely dinner was served. Mrs. Mable Klippinger of Freeport made a lovely cake, and Mrs. McNett brought a beautiful white cake. They received many lovely presents, and Harry C. [illegible]ckett and wife of Seattle, Wash., sent a bea[illegible] box of roses and green leaves for decora[illegible]ons, and Will McNett brought a lovely box of candy.

PEOPLE were interested in the motions of heavenly and terrestrial bodies two centuries ago, but there was no means of communicating information to them, as there were no swiftly moving railway trains to employ as illustrations.

People Hate to Change.

Sir: While ringing out the old ones, it chanced to occur to me to advise you that in Cuba it is the custom among the inland and out-of-the-way towns to drive the goat around to the households. The milk man advises the household that he and his goods have arrived and the housewife promptly brings out the baby and hitches it onto the goat and in this way no middle man enters into the deal. Milking machines, cans, bottles or containers, delivery wagons, dirty feet in the kitchen or the back porch, frozen milk, split ditto, sour ditto, watered ditto, and other kindred accessories of the milk business are done away with. Would it be asking too much to have you sponsor a movement designed to introduce this most excellent system in our midst? Sorry. Was afraid it might.
HAVANA DE CUBANOLA.

IF England were to stop muddling and Ireland stop hating for twenty-four hours, they might come to an understanding. Likewise, if any one of the large nations were to take a chance and disarm, the rest might speedily follow suit.

BACK TO NORMAL.

Sir: Mr. Emil Cotton, of Room 4, Snell Hall, U. of C., is addicted to the old-fashioned, open face, cotton night-shirt. Inasmuch as college students are the barometers of the country's styles, may not this innovation on the part of a w. k. campus leader be taken as a forerunner of the return of the g. o. d. before the advent of the bedroom drama?

EARACHES.

TO take chances with earache is generally risky. What is thought to be earache may be mastoid trouble or suppuration deep in the ear. But if a person wants to take chances, there are some symptoms that may be helpful. When children wake up in the night with earache, cry out with pain and shortly get easy and go back to sleep, the probability is that there is no trouble in the ear itself. The trouble is generally in the tonsils and adenoids.

These are swollen and enlarged. During sleep these glands stop the Eustachian canal. After this has been stopped long enough for some of the air behind the drum to be absorbed by the blood the drum is sucked back and pain results. When the child cries the Eustachian tube is opened, and the space behind the drum fills with air and the pain stops.

Or the earache may be a neuralgia referred to the ear from a tooth or from the nose. This pain is generally more around the ear than in it. Children often make mistakes in telling the location of their pains.

Or the earache may be due to boils in the external air canal. In this kind of earache there may be swelling of the parts immediately around the canal or of the glands near by. Pressure on the lobe immediately in front of the ear causes pain. Tenderness is present there. This is the kind of earache which people get from swimming in water that is not as clean as it might be. There is more of it in the swimming season than at other times.

And, finally, there is earache in which there is suppuration of the region behind the drum due to infection which has extended there from the throat. In this variety of ear trouble there generally is a history of a sore throat or cold lasting a few days and then the earache sets up.

The pain of most of the earaches is relieved somewhat by a hot water bag. Laudanum and oil dropped in the ear is practically useless.

In the last of the four varieties the probability is that the drum must be pierced to allow the pus to escape.

The real cause of two of the four varieties lies in the upper throat and back of the nose.

1. All stand erect (chest out, shoulders back).
2. Place handkerchief to nostril with left hand.
3. Grasp the bridge of the nose with right thumb and forefinger. Elbow at shoulder level. Nostrils open.
4. Blow nose, bowing head forward and down, depressing elbow to waist line, keeping fingers on nose.
5. Straighten up and breathe in.

This is to be repeated a dozen or more times. A mild snuff is handed out. It is composed of some powdered soap and a little menthol. This is lightly flicked into nostrils. It causes sneezing. After this repeat the exercises several times.

DAUGHTER HAS A BURSA.

Mrs. M. C. S. writes: "My daughter had a growth on her thumb removed by operation. It contained a white, jellylike substance. Now on the next finger another growth has formed, and is as large as a good sized marble. She says if she presses it or it is hurt in any way it sends a sharp pain to her head. I have wanted her to wait until school is over to have it removed, so as not to interfere with her work.

"1. Would it be safe to wait?

"2. Is this second growth separate or a part not removed by the first operation?

"3. What causes the sharp pain?

"4. What is such a growth called, and what causes them?

"5. Is the operation dangerous and might it cripple her hand?

"6. Is there a better way to get at it than by operation? Is it bound to leave a scar?"

REPLY.

1. It would. This is a bursa. Bursas are of practically no importance.
2. It is separate.
3. Probably reflex.
4. Under the tendons are lubricating sacs called bursa. If they overdo and accumulate too much lubricant we have the tumor described.
5. No to both questions.
6. "Jack Jones, the boiler man, cures them by hitting them with the edge of a board."

BETTER BE EXAMINED.

J. W. S. writes: "About four years ago I was working in Kern county in the mining district. The mine panned out and my wife and I decided to come to Los Angeles, where we had been living before. She left a few days before I did. When the train I was on arrived at Mojave I went out to get a cup of coffee and the next thing I knew (which was over four weeks afterward) I was in the hospital at San Bernardino. The same thing happened to me twice since. What do you think of my case? I am without money. What can I do?"

REPLY.

There is not much that can be done. You should have an examination for syphilis. If this disease is present treatment may be of service. I suggest that you go voluntarily to a state hospital for the insane for such examination and treatment as you need.

HIGHER TEMPERATURE LIKELY.

C. B. V. writes: "1. Do people have lung trouble and not run a temperature? 2. Why is this, if so? 3. What causes pain and heavy feeling through chest and shoulders most of the time?"

REPLY.

1. Possible, but not probable.
2. At the beginning of the trouble, because of the lightness of the infection. In very advanced cases because of lack of vitality and perhaps for other reasons.
3. These symptoms by themselves do not indicate consumption. They may not indicate anything worth while.

WHAT IS FURNITURE?

Chicago, Jan. 4.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—The landlord of my apartment claims I am in violation of my lease because we carry a folding card table in and out the front hallway. The lease reads: "No furniture shall be taken in or out the front hallway." I contend that this table, as used, is personal property and not furniture, as referred to in the lease.

We would regard it as furniture.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I signed up in an accident and life insurance company, payments for the premium to be deducted from my salary after Jan. 15. Can I drop this insurance and restrain the insurance company from taking these payments out of my salary?
P. J. B.

Probably not. Depends upon additional facts and upon the wording of the document you signed.

INCOME TAX RETURNS.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—A married son became sick in January, 1920, and it became necessary for me to support him and pay all expenses such as nurse's, doctor's bills, etc., during a period of eight months. Can I justly make deduction in my income tax report for 1920 covering this expense during the period of his complete dependency upon me? He was completely disabled and dependant during this period.
W. G. S.

HUSBAND LIABLE FOR DEBTS.

Champaign, Ill., Jan. 4.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—A boy of 18 marries, with his parents' consent, a woman of 28. She has two small children by her first husband. Both worked at my grocery store and ran an account. Later the woman died, leaving $1,000 insurance in her own name to her two children. There is this grocery bill, a doctor's bill, and a hospital bill, $25, $700, and $200, respectively. The total of property left to the young husband is about $300 in furniture, etc. Which account comes first? What responsibility belongs to the husband and where do his parents stand in relation to these debts?
A Reader.

Much depends upon the terms of the insurance. If it became a part of the estate the expenses of the last illness would be paid out of it first and your claim would come after. The husband is liable for family expenses, but his parents are not.

WORD FOR WORD.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Some time last June I received a bill for electricity consumed from April 2, 1920, to June 2, 1920. I am positive that I paid this bill, but a short time ago I destroyed all receipts except those of the last few months. On Dec. 16, six months later, I received notice that the amount of this account was still due, although it never appeared on any of the bills following it. Inasmuch as I am unable to produce receipt, although I can swear under oath that I paid it, must I again pay this amount?
T. J. S.

If the matter came to litigation it would be simply a matter of your word against theirs. We are not in a position to say which witness would make the better impression upon the jury.

STATE HIGHWAY POLICE.

Chicago, Dec. 31.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The excellent articles written by Mr. Oscar Hewitt on the subject of highway police should meet with the approval of the people of the state and cause them to urge the members of the legislature to pass a bill authorizing the formation of a state highway police.

The building of hard roads and the increased number of automobiles used for business and pleasure purposes make it imperative that a well disciplined, highly trained motorcycle police force be organized to regulate traffic and safeguard property and lives.

The military police back of the lines in France, which were patterned after the French highway police, demonstrated the efficiency which could be developed by the selecting of men of brains and brawn to cope with traffic and crime. The French in peace time use their highway police to superintend the repairs of the road, in addition to police duty, each man having a "repair gang" somewhat like the section gang on our railroads, who make all the repairs in a given territory. These police also regulate the cafés and public houses in the villages—see that law and order is maintained.

In the state of Illinois there should be a force, with number based upon the population of counties, excluding incorporated cities and villages which have organized and uniformed police departments. The highway police should be divorced from politics and under the supervision of a state department. They should be detailed to counties and their duties coördinated with those of deputy sheriffs.

The principal duties of the highway police should be to regulate traffic, enforce speed regulating laws, check up licenses, glaring headlights, and all other violation of vehicle laws and rules of the road, inspect roads, bridges, culverts, and superintend repairs.

The scope of their authority should take in crime detection and crime prevention, aid the local law officers in law enforcement, when called upon, and report the failure of local authorities to perform their sworn duty where such conduct is observed.

They should not come under the orders of the sheriff or other law officers except when called upon to assist in specific cases.

Labor organizations should not obstruct the passage of this law. Labor has nothing to fear from a well organized force of officers of the law. No strike has been won where violence has been used and public opinion turned against the strikers.

WASTING(!) OUR SPACE.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—You are devoting, or rather wasting, considerable space in an attempt to have a system of state police installed. Why are you so interested in the organization of a gang of loafing, bulldozing Cossacks? Not from any sympathy for the farmer surely. If it be the farmers' interests you are championing why not use your influence to lower the price of commodities the farmer has to buy, or to increase the price of farm products, instead of advocating something which will increase the burden on the taxpayer.

Another phase of this czarizing scheme of yours is the registration of all persons. This would trouble every one, except the crooks, who would go through the form of registering and then continue their nefarious calling.

Since you represent none but the capitalist, the big crooks, the idle rich, it is easy to see that this is simply a veiled attempt to foist militarism on the country.
George Austin.

HOSPITAL HEROES GRATEFUL TO GOOD FELLOWS.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The envelopes containing $[illegible] (Good Fellow gifts) for the patients of Hospital No. 30 arrived on New Year's morning and were distributed by the commanding officer in person to the patients who were able to come down for the New Year's gathering. The envelopes for the bed patients were distributed through the nospital on New Year's day and today.

Our reception in the wards was even more enthusiastic than when we gave out the Christmas money, and 1921 could not have been ushered in more auspiciously for our sick boys. With money in their pockets as tangible evidence that they have not been forgotten, they are facing the new year hopefully and cheerfully and desire me to convey their sincere thanks to the people of Chicago and to The Chicago Tribune for this splendid gift.

Wishing you a happy New Year, I am, yours very truly, J. W. Jorgensen,
Director, American Red Cross, U. S. Public Health Service Hospital No. 30.

WHEN RISIBILITIES ARE TITILLATED.

East Dubuque, Ill., Dec. 27.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The naïve and utterly unconscious egotism of some of your editorial writers cannot fail to titillate the risibilities of an increasing number of your readers.

Witness your leader "Soviet Ideas of Efficiency." The writer seems entirely to have failed to realize that an opinion upon an economic question cannot possibly be of any value unless it is absolutely free from conventional restraints. Men in intellectual pursuits who actually have more than ordinary acumen and vision are sometimes, for the very reason that they possess those qualifications, prone to arrive at the erroneous conclusion that being right over the majority generally, on account of lack of information or intelligence or both on the part of the majority, they are infallibly right in their judgment in all matters.

The dogmatic quality of the editorial in question is its amusing feature. May I be permitted to ask its writer if the so-called foolish ideas of the soviet leaders could possibly produce any worse condition than is in existence at the present time? Also to ask if he realizes that the approaching settlement of economic questions will not be upon any "recognition" of rights but upon the stern demand of an outraged citizenry.
Citizen.

A FINAL SHOT AT "MILITANT CHRISTIAN."

Chicago, Dec. 30.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—If the person who styles himself "Militant Christian" will study Christianity a little more than he apparently has been in the habit of doing, instead of waving a baffle sword in one hand and writing ridiculous articles with the other, he will learn that there is no such being as a "militant Christian." The weapons of Christianity is persuasion and no force such as "Militant Christian" and others of his gentry seek to employ.

"Militant Christian" speaks of "forcing the rabble to observe the Sabbath." Sabbath breaking is independent of the civil law, and if a man wishes not to go to church or not to keep the Sabbath there is no power in this country which can legally compel him to do so.

This business of forcing people to be good is all utter folly. "Militant Christian" and the rest of his legion want to turn this free land of ours into a vast hunting ground for ecclesiastical gumshoes on the lookout for the poor sinners who inadvertently sneeze or play "jass" after 12 o'clock Saturday nights.

HEALTH CHIEFS START SURVEY ON VACCINATION

Robertson Acts to Head Off Epidemic Danger.

Health Commissioner Robertson yesterday began a crusade to list all persons in Chicago who have not been vaccinated in an effort to stamp out all danger of an epidemic. Work on the survey was started at once by employés of the contagious disease bureau.

Cooperation in the work was given by the Chicago Association of Commerce, which sent out 6,000 notices to business men and manufacturers requesting them to list those in their employ who have not been vaccinated. Letters asking that this be done were also sent by Commissioner Robertson to the Illinois Manufacturers' association and a number of other business organizations throughout the city.

Robertson Points to Necessity.

"We will attempt to persuade those who have not been vaccinated to submit to the operation," said Commissioner Robertson. "We are surrounded by epidemics of smallpox, but in Chicago only three cases have been reported in four days. There are only fourteen cases in the isolation hospital and we want to wipe the disease out.

"There have been a number of protest meetings against our vaccination activities and ten principals of the public schools have been sued personally in connection with the exclusion of children who have not been vaccinated. That is the least of our worries. We do not intend to back water at all and will fight every effort to frustrate vaccination."

Oak Park Doctors Confer.

Measures to combat smallpox in Oak Park were taken at a meeting of physicians in the office of Health Commissioner Frank S. Needham last night. Dr. S. S. Winner, state health commissioner attended the meeting and concurred in the opinion of the others that to prevent an increase in the cases it would be necessary to vaccinate all those attending public and parochial schools as well as the dance halls where dancing is taught.

Parents of children who object to this measure will be informed that their children cannot attend class until the order is complied with.

COUNCIL BODY URGES LIMIT OF FOUR TAG DAYS

Four tag days each year, two in spring and two in the fall, would be permitted under the recommendation yesterday by a subcommittee of the council judiciary committee.

Under the plan reported by Chairman Walter Steffen, one tag day would be set aside for children's charities, another for adult charities approved by the Association of Commerce, and the other two reserved for miscellaneous organizations approved by the city controller.

All organizations would have to be incorporated for two years to be eligible.

TEACHER'S AUTO STOLEN.

Special

To reduce the crowds during rush hours we will allow a dollar discount

on all suit sales made before 10 A.M. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings

A MADE-TO-MEASURE, custom-tailored suit or overcoat for $30.00—sponsored and guaranteed by the foremost wholesale tailoring house in America!

Has there been anything like that offered to Chicago clothes-buyers in recent times?

Why, even the so-called clothing sales, offering ready-made clothes at clearance prices, do a great deal of boasting when their figures reach down to $40 and $50.

What is going to happen down here at our wholesale plant, when The Daily News and Chicago Tribune carry the facts about this Sale into more than a quarter of a million Chicago homes?

True, we're equipped for almost any size crowd that may come.

For we have two massive buildings down here, twelve big floors devoted exclusively to tailor shops and tailor service.

And we've set aside one entire additional floor, manned by 28 extra salesmen, wholly to handle the crowds during this Sale.

But regardless of these ample facilities, we desire, for the comfort and convenience of everybody, to distribute the sales evenly throughout the day.

Eleven in the morning to three in the afternoon are crowded hours. And Saturday is the rush day of all days. To relieve the pressure of these peak times, we offer a discount of one dollar on all sales made Wednesday, Thursday and Friday before 10 A.M.

Come early, even if you have to take a little time away from your work.

Whether you are an employer or employee, merchant or mechanic, the savings offered down here this week will warrant you in getting up with the milkman—indeed, of taking an hour or two away from your work.

In fact, the saving of at least $25 per suit assured to every buyer by this Sale, will not only pay you for your time, but for your taxi-fare down here, if you mind the short and easy three-block walk from the loop.

Every garment made to your order—Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back.

Tailoring Sale Extraordinaire!

Carloads of fine woolens consigned to us by overstocked Eastern woolen mills for immediate disposal at bare salvage prices

ONE HOUR before the opening of any other store in Chicago this morning, we will lift the curtain on the greatest tailoring clearance in clothing history.

We claim no credit for the remarkable cost sacrifices made at this sale. They are fathered by plain old-fashioned business necessity.

You know the situation with the big Eastern woolen mills. For eight weeks, many of the looms have been at a complete standstill. And cancellations, returns and stop-orders, have piled up woolen stock until it is imperative, with some of them, to seek an immediate cash conversion of their fabric surplus.

Knowing our first-hand contact with the clothes-buying public in Chicago and New York, they have put it up to us to help move their accumulated stocks, regardless of all cost and profit sacrifice. With inventory time close at hand, they want action—and want it quickly.

So, for the double purpose of co-operating with these mills—and simultaneously giving our friends the greatest values we have ever offered—we have arranged to dispose of these consigned fabrics, regardless of their original cost and high worth—for THIRTY DOLLARS—genuinely custom-tailored to order.

WILSON RETAINS POWER OVER WAR FINANCE BODY

Must Fill Vacancies to Permit Functioning.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—President Wilson will have to fill at least one of the two vacancies on the board of directors of the revived war finance corporation before it can make any considerable number of loans for financing exports with a view to affording relief to the farming and other industries.

This statement was made by treasury officials today after the resolution directing revival of the corporation became a law through its passage by the house over the president's veto.

250 to 66 Override Veto.

The vote in the house to pass the resolution over the president's veto was nearly as ample as that cast yesterday in the senate. The house stood 250 for the measure, against 66 for upholding the veto, or thirty-seven more than the required two-thirds majority. Seventeen Democrats voted to sustain the veto, while for its passage there were 135 Republicans, 114 Democrats, and one Prohibitionist.

Treasury officials said that while the corporation would prepare to function immediately, President Wilson would be required to appoint one or two new directors before much could be done.

No Action for Two Months.

The board of directors is composed of five members, and a majority is required to approve the application for a loan. While the present board membership constitutes a quorum, officials asserted, Secretary Houston, who is ex-officio chairman, would not be able to devote his time exclusively to corporation matters, as the investigation of the adequacy of securities would require. The other two directors, Angus W. McLean, who now is managing director, and George R. Cooksey, officials said, would thus be unable to act upon applications for loans.

Finance corporation officials stated it probably would be two months before the first advance could be approved.

Funds for making the loans must be raised, officials explained, and the methods of providing this money determined upon. The corporation has a balance of about $375,000,000 with the treasury, but Secretary Houston has taken the stand that this money should not be used for making advances to private concerns.

QUIT ARMY FOR FARM? NO, SAYS GEN. WOOD'S SON

Lieut. Osborne Wood, son of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, commander of the 6th army corps area, yesterday declared the rumor that he is to quit the army for the farm is unfounded.

OSBORNE WOOD.
[Copyright: Walinger]

Young Wood recently obtained leave of absence from his post at Nogales and went into Mexico. It was then reported that he would interest himself in an agricultural project in the southern republic. Lieut. Wood has followed in the footsteps of his illustrious father ever since he was graduated from Harvard. After spending his leave of absence in Mexico Lieut. Wood will rejoin his command at Nogales and, his father said yesterday, will remain in the service indefinitely.

FARMER TARIFF WINS SKIRMISH WITH SENATORS

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Hearings on the emergency agricultural tariff bill were arranged by the senate finance committee today after a motion by Senator Simmons of North Carolina, ranking Democratic member, to postpone action indefinitely had been voted down.

Hearings will begin on Thursday and continue until next Tuesday.

The committee also voted to resume hearings on soldiers' bonus legislation on Jan. 13.

Hear Witnesses Today in Abyssinian Riot Trial

The taking of testimony will begin today in the trial in Judge George Kersten's court of the ten Negroes who styled themselves Abyssinians. They are charged with killing two men who interfered with their burning an American flag to stimulate their proposed exodus of the American Negro to a colony to be established in Abyssinia. The jury was completed last night. Robert L. Ross, a Great Lakes jackie, and Joel A. Hoyt were killed in the riot that followed.

$50,000 BUDGET FOR INAUGURAL STIRS UP SENATE

Democrats Appeal to Jefferson's Shade.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—A storm broke in the senate today over the proposed expenditures for the inaugural ceremonies of Harding and Coolidge.

As chairman of the joint congressional committee in charge of the inaugural ceremonies at the capitol, Senator Knox, Pennsylvania, offered a resolution appropriating $50,000 to meet the necessary expenditures.

Senator Borah, Idaho; Senator Norris, Nebraska; Senator Jones, Washington, and others immediately attacked the size of the appropriation, insisting that there should be economy at the start.

Senator Fletcher, Florida, sided with Borah. He spoke of Jeffersonian simplicity.

"Jefferson Down to Date."

Senator Knox countered with a suggestion that Senator Fletcher "bring Jeffersonian simplicity down to date" and read to the senate the list of expenses of President Wilson's trip to Paris, which cost the government some $1,600,000.

An amendment was pending when the senate laid the Knox resolution aside until tomorrow, offered by Senator Norris to cut the appropriation down to $20,000.

Reed Says a Word.

In opposing the Knox resolutions Mr. Borah estimated that the inaugural ceremonies would cost the federal and state governments $1,000,000, "a sum entirely too large when children are dying of starvation abroad and in some American cities thousands of children are not sufficiently nourished and clothed to attend school."

He insisted, as did other senators, that if Senator Harding had his own way there would be only a simple ceremony. Senator Nelson, Minnesota, introduced a resolution to prevent the erection of stands along the streets.

Senator Reed suggested that some Democrats only talk of Jeffersonian simplicity when the Democrats are in the minority.

CITY'S STAND ON TRACTION LINES HIT BY COMPANY

Target in Call for Annual Meeting of Voting Trust.

A sharp attack on the attitude of Mayor Thompson and the city administration toward the traction companies is contained in a call issued yesterday for the annual meeting on Feb. 8 of the Chicago City and Connecting Railways Collateral Trust, which holds the stock of the Chicago City Railway company.

"The outstanding feature of the year has been a finding by the public utilities commission that the value of the street railroads, the securities of which are held in the trust, is at least the amount for which the properties are capitalized under the ordinance of 1907 and the fixing of a reasonable rate of return based upon that valuation," the statement says. "The valuation and rate of return were ascertained and fixed only after a long drawn out and bitter battle, and, of course, an appeal has been taken to the courts by the city.

Recites Political Attack.

"Meanwhile, the political value of a fierce attack upon public utilities is still paying enhanced political returns. At present the public is worrying over the fact that the street car service is inadequate for the public necessity, not to mention public convenience. No denial of the fact of inadequacy can be made. It is just as necessary in order to furnish adequate transportation in a large and thriving city that extensions of service be made yearly, additional equipment be promptly furnished and terminal facilities from time to time be broadened, as it is to run the cars daily without interruption. The latter necessity is a little more obvious, that is all.

Foes Loudest in Demands.

"Immediately upon the fixing of the new rates of fare, those most active in the ruin of the credit of the companies have been loudest in demands for immediate and radical improvement in service, a demand with which the companies are anxious to comply, but with impaired credit time is required to build and equip new cars, to enlarge terminals and extend lines, because such necessities can only be provided out of the meager return over and above actual operating expenses.

"The attention of the public has been repeatedly directed by the companies to the fact that lessened revenues would inevitably be reflected in inadequate service, so that while the companies share with the public the regret, they cannot exhibit any genuine surprise at the present situation. This will be corrected as time produces the funds necessary for the purpose, in fact the work is proceeding daily, but four years have been lost by litigation."

GEORGE VOGEL HELD AS SUSPECT IN GEM THEFT

"Big George" Vogel, who has figured in many of the sordid happenings since the days when he was a west side saloonkeeper, is under arrest at the detective bureau today. He is named in a confession obtained by the police from Morris Weiner of 3107 West Roosevelt road. The confession is said by the police to clear up a $28,000 jewel robbery at the store of Samuel Rubinstein at 719 South Crawford avenue on Dec. 15.

GEORGE VOGEL.

Vogel's last appearance in the spotlight came when he was accused of killing Policeman James Hosna in the saloon of "Paddy the Bear" Ryan. He is charged by Weiner with being the go-between for the five men who actually committed the jewel robbery and to have helped them dispose of the loot.

GOMPERS SCORES HIGHEST COURT'S BOYCOTT RULING

Plans to 'Swat Bolshevist Fly' in Mexico.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 4.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, tonight in a formal statement attacked the decision handed down by the United States Supreme court yesterday relative to the so-called secondary boycott.

"The court has joined forces with the anti-union shop movement," Gompers asserted, characterizing the decision as a "blow at the movement for human freedom and progress.

"It is thoroughly in accord with the most ardent wishes of predatory greed," the statement added.

The court in the case of the Duplex Printing Press company against the International Association of Machinists held that labor unions or their members are accountable to the anti-trust laws where they depart from their "normal and legitimate objects and engage in an actual combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade."

He'll "Swat Mexican Fly."

No attention will be paid to it, he said, but "if they bother us like a fly, we will swat them like a fly."

The inimical attitude of certain Pan-Americans towards organized labor, he asserted, is held "by small groups in many countries, bought and paid for by the Russian soviet with money stolen from the American people."

Gompers arrived in St. Louis tonight on his way from Washington to Mexico City to attend the Pan-American Federation of Labor convention. He expects to depart tomorrow.

U. S. Bars Mexican Unionists.

Mexico City, Jan. 4.—United States immigration officials at Laredo refused to allow the Mexican reception committee, sent to welcome representatives of the American Federation of Labor to Mexico, to cross to the American side, Canuto A. Vargas, secretary of the Pan-American Federation of Labor, announced on his arrival here this morning from Washington.

The American labor representatives, headed by Samuel Gompers, are to participate in the Pan-American labor congress to be held in Mexico City.

The reason for the refusal to admit the Mexicans was not explained.

Two labor congresses probably will meet here next week, one the regularly constituted convention of the Pan-American Federation of Labor and the other a protest demonstration which was called today by dissenting members of the federation.

A. F. of L. Cause of Split.

The American Federation of Labor appears to be the rock upon which the factions are splitting. Posters appeared in the city today announcing that the American Federation of Labor has not been recognized by the Third Internationale of Moscow, of which, says the posters, the Pan-American congress is an adherent.

The newspapers have announced that virtually all the nations of South and Central America will be represented.

Public Debt Decreased $192,932,075 in December

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—A decrease of $192,932,075 in the public debt during the last month of 1920 was announced today by the treasury. On Dec. 31 the total gross debt was $23,982,224,168.

TWO U. OF C. CO-EDS ANNOUNCE BETROTHAL; BOTH WAR ROMANCES

MISS ELEANOR O'CONNOR. FRANCIS T. WILSON

MISS HILDA McCLINTOCK. CAPT. JAMES BROWN.

Two war romances reached their climax at the University of Chicago yesterday when two co-eds announced their engagements to former students.

Prof. and Mrs. W. D. McClintock of 5629 University avenue announced the engagement of their daughter, Hilda, to Capt. James Brown of Rockport, Tex. Miss McClintock met Capt. Brown when both were serving with the A. E. F. in Siberia. Prof. McClintock is of the English department of the University and Capt. Brown is with the 39th infantry at Camp Lewis.

The other romance is that of Miss Eleanor O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connor of 5543 Hyde Park boulevard, whose engagement to Francis T. Wilson of La Salle, Ill., is announced.

Mr. Wilson served as a lieutenant during the war and met Miss O'Connor while in the service. The father of the bride is an attorney and Mrs. O'Connor formerly was president of the Chicago Woman's club.

JEWS APPEAL AGAINST CHECK ON IMMIGRATION

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Opposition to suspending immigration for a year, or to any restrictive legislation, was voiced before a senate committee today by representatives of Jewish organizations, and also by those who desire immigration of Mexican laborers for the southwestern states.

The hearings will end next week, and work will begin on a bill. Immigration Commissioner Wallis of Ellis Island, New York, will appear before the committee tomorrow.

John L. Berstein of the Hebrew Sheltering Aid society, recently returned from Europe, said newspaper word-pictures of a tremendous rush of Jewish immigrants to this country were incorrectly drawn.

Roy Miller, Corpus Christi, Tex., said development of Texas land had been possible largely through Mexican labor, as American labor "could not be had."

RAID STILL AT EAST OMAHA.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 4.—A sheriff's force seized six stills, 100 gallons of raisin whisky and 600 gallons of mash at a house and barn in East Omaha today.

Begin Ford-Newberry Count; Both Lose Votes

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—Behind barred doors the senate elections committee began today a recount of the ballots cast in the Michigan senatorial primary contest between Senator Newberry and Henry Ford. A force of twenty tellers, attorneys for both sides, and supervisors officiated.

Votes of about three of Michigan's eighty-eight counties showed a loss to Senator Newberry of ten votes and to Mr. Ford of five.

"FROZEN MUSIC" was Ruskin's definition of architecture

The task of the architect is difficult, because he has to reconcile two things that are often in conflict. ¶ His floors must bear their load. His design must stand the buffeting of wind and weather. But also, his completed work must have beauty—an adequate expression of the best in the men who pay for it. ¶ The Wieboldt organization is above all things, practical. It builds staunchly, speedily and economically. But never for a moment does it lose sight of the architect's unwritten specification—beauty.

PREPARE INCOME TAX SCHEDULES NOW, IS ADVICE

"The Tribune," as formerly, will maintain this year a bureau to assist taxpayers in making out their income tax returns. Beginning the latter part of this week, an income tax advisor will be present at the Tribune building, Madison and Dearborn streets, with blanks and facilities for making out schedules and for advising on difficult points.

Because of the limited number of deputies available, Thomas O'Brien, chief field deputy in the internal revenue department, announced last night that fewer deputies would be sent to banks and private concerns than in former years. He urged taxpayers to begin preparing their schedules immediately.

Open Branch Offices.

415 North Clark street.
1224 Milwaukee avenue.
102 West Madison street.
4620 Kimbark avenue.

Collections to Continue.

Special agents have been assigned to check up and issue distraint warrants against the property of all delinquents who have failed to pay sales, luxury, and manufacturer's taxes during 1920.

C. E. MITCHELL, FINANCIER, TO TALK ON "WHAT OF 1921?"

"What of 1921?" will be the topic of a talk by Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City company of New York, at the Association of Commerce luncheon today noon in the ball room of the Hotel La Salle. Mr. Mitchell has come at the invitation of President Wyllys W. Baird of the association.

[McDonald Photo.]

He was formerly a Chicago business man, making his start here as an employé of the Western Electric company. He had worked his way up to the position of assistant manager when he resigned in 1906 to go to New York as assistant to the president of the Trust Company of America. Later he started his own investment company, going some time afterward to the National City bank to manage its securities holding company and finally becoming president of the National City company, an organization which has branch offices in fifty American, Canadian and European cities.

He is a director in many large corporations and is considered one of the leading financial authorities of the country.

HOMES GONE, SO NEW QUAKE ONLY SCARES VICTIMS

BY J. W. WHITE.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

MENDOZA, Argentina, Jan. 4.—Approximately 10,000 homeless earthquake victims in Lavalle county, thirty-five miles from Mendoza, who have been sleeping without shelter since Dec. 17, were again panic stricken last Sunday by a new quake.

The city of Mendoza and the neighboring territory have been shaken by earthquakes every two or three days since the big quake of December. The fact that the tremor occurred at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, instead of at night, was responsible for the comparatively light loss of life, most of those killed were having their afternoon nap in the open.

This part of Argentina has undergone the same climatic changes which visited Chile after the quakes of Dec. 8 and 9. The climate is again normal in Chile, but it remains bleak and cold here despite the fact that it is midsummer. When there is not a cold rain heavy dark clouds hang overhead.

The water systems in the quake area were destroyed and the victims are being supplied by city sprinkling carts sent from Mendoza.

Kaiser's Kin Has Chance to Buy Back Abdication

BRUNSWICK, Germany, Jan. 4.—An opportunity has been offered Prince Ernest August, son-in-law of former Emperor William, to gain possession of the documents which he signed in 1918 abdicating his title as Duke of Brunswick, according to information obtained by the free state of Brunswick, says the Brunswick Gazette today.

The free state of Brunswick recently attempted to reach a settlement with the former duke, but his demands are considered exorbitant.

NORTH CHICAGO AND LAKE VIEW SHOW HIGHEST TAX RATES

North Chicago and Lake View have the highest tax rate of any of the towns of Chicago, according to tax statistics prepared in the office of County Clerk Sweitzer yesterday. Jefferson and Rogers Park have the lowest rates.

The tabulation of the tax figures show that taxes have gone up from 4½ to 8½ per cent. The reason given is the necessity of providing for the increased expenses of the various taxing bodies in Chicago.

Following are the rates of the various towns of Chicago for the 1920 assessment compared with the rates in the preceding year:

West Chicago	$5.36	$5.57
South Chicago	5.14	5.39
North Chicago	5.41	5.89
Hyde Park	5.14	5.39
Lake	5.14	5.39
Lake View	5.41	5.89
Rogers Park	4.84	5.06
Jefferson	4.84	5.06

Of the various taxing bodies of the city Lincoln park imposed the greatest increase for maintenance. The city of Chicago has an increase of 21 cents. Cook county as a taxing body increased its rate from 49 to 52 cents.

The rates this year as last apply to the $100 assessed valuation. This is one-half of the full fair cash valuation.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 4.—Property in Illinois is given a total equalized assessed value of $4,234,988,133 in the report of the state tax commissioner issued today. Of that amount, $3,552,775,197 is the value placed by local assessors on personal property. The balance is the equalized valuation of corporations.

According to the report, lands in Illinois have increased $98,764,764 in value since 1919, and personal property has increased $23,171,053. Total increases since last year are $123,511,486. Town and city lots decreased $3,698,260 in value, making the net increase $124,873,226.

COURT REJECTS PACKERS' PLAN TO GIVE UP YARDS

"Big 5" Given 30 Days to Perfect Sale Scheme.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Justice Stafford of the District of Columbia Supreme court decreed today that unless the Chicago packers submit within thirty days an acceptable plan for relinquishing their control of stockyards he will appoint a trustee for the properties pending their disposition. The court decided that he had power to enforce the decree divesting the packers of their side lines "by a receivership and sale, if that becomes necessary or appropriate," and added:

"But the defendants should be allowed a reasonable time and opportunity to dispose of their obnoxious holdings for themselves. It is contended by the government that such time and opportunity have been allowed already, and this may be true; but the court is ready to solve any doubt on the subject in favor of the defendants.

Cannot Approve Any Plan.

"Neither the plan presented by the Norris report nor the plan presented by the Armour and Swift groups is such as can be approved by the court, in view of the requirements of the consent decree. The defendants must be required to file any other plans which they may desire to present within a short time, to be fixed by the court.

"In order to facilitate future progress it is considered best to state here that the court cannot see its way to approve any plan for the consolidation of the yards whether by a holding company or otherwise.

Must Release Holdings.

"Any plan to be acceptable must provide for an early and complete divestment by the defendants of all the obnoxious holdings.

"An extension of six months may be allowed in the case of the Crescent City stock yard owing to the peculiar circumstances there existing.

"Unless the defendants are able to propose a plan that will meet the foregoing requirements the court will feel obliged to appoint officers to take title to all the stock in question and to hold the same subject to the order of the court until suitable arrangements can be made to have it disposed of in accordance with the terms and purposes of the decree.

"The defendants are allowed an extension of thirty days within which to file new plans."

BACK TO STARTING POINT.

The decision of the court in effect leaves the packers exactly where they were before it was handed down, according to officials of the "big five" who commented on the ruling.

"In so far as we have been able to interpret the ruling," an official of Armour's said, "we are no nearer a solution of the problem of getting rid of the yards than we were before. The court in its ruling does not set forth any special plan; it merely states that the plan we have offered is not satisfactory. It allows us time to formulate a new plan or to amend the present plan so that it will be satisfactory.

"In Difficult Position."

"The packers are in a difficult position. They are perfectly willing to dispose of their holdings to any one who will pay for them. But the transaction involves upwards of $30,000,000, and a buyer for a $30,000,000 property cannot be found offhand.

"It was because of this that the idea of a holding company was suggested. That seemed to be the only way in which the necessary money could be obtained."

LAKE SKIPPER LEADS CHICAGO'S LIST OF NEW YEAR WEDDINGS

MRS. STANLEY W. BURNS.

It is an item in the sailor's lexicon of omens that things begun, voyages started, and adventures undertaken on the New Year will prove eminently satisfactory. So Capt. Stanley W. Burns of the Cleveland Clift Steamship company and Miss Nellie C. Thompson, daughter of Capt. Nels Thompson of Manistee, Mich., naturally decided to be married as soon after the first as possible.

On Monday they obtained the first Chicago marriage license of 1921 and were married that same day.

Mr. Thompson is well known as a steamship captain, as is Mr. Burns. The latter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Burns of 645 North Dearborn street.

M'GOVERN'S SAFE STOLEN; LIQUOR WITNESSES GONE

While the government is hunting for two witnesses whose testimony is material in the prosecution of the McGovern brothers, proprietors of the Liberty Inn café at 661 North Clark street, for alleged liquor selling, the city police yesterday began a search for robbers who broke into the inn and stole the safe containing $2,000 and two $50 Liberty bonds early yesterday morning.

Two patrons some time ago had four drinks of liquor in McGoverns' place, they told "dry" agents, and were charged $10.20. They made their kick to the government and then vanished, fearing prosecution.

North Clark street cabaret habitués told the police yesterday that they had seen John "Chapple" Moran, bartender, superintending the removal of tne safe yesterday morning. He did not appear for work and the owners have asked the police to arrest him.

KENTUCKY HAS TOBACCO RIOTS; LOW PRICE CAUSE

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 4.—Exciting scenes occurred in several smaller cities in old Kentucky today when tobacco growers, incensed at the low bids made in market on their leaf tobacco, made a concerted movement and stopped the sales.

In Covington guns were in evidence, but no casualties resulted.

Growers stopped the sales at Maysville about an hour after the opening. General disorder prevailed. Thirty-five hundred growers from six counties—Mason, Lewis, Bracken, and Fleming, Ky., and Brown and Adams counties, Ohio, crowded around the buyers, cursing and yelling and pushing buyers back. Tobacco that brought from 25 to 35 last year, sold for 3 and 5 cents today.

Why the Growers "Kick."

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—While reports come of Kentucky tobacco growers threatening buyers because of "bankrupt prices," the Wall Street Journal reports the year just closed as good as any in history in the tobacco industry. "Sales of the American Tobacco company exceeded last year's total of $146,000,000, and may have been close to $150,000,000.

WHILE the steel in white-hot ingot form is being heated to a uniform temperature preliminary to rolling, representative tests are being analyzed. The ingot is then rolled into the order when the contents found are within the specification.

At Inland, a specification means exactly what it says. Steel must meet it. And to be sure it does, a score of men, methods and departments check it at every point along its fiery path. You can depend on getting exactly the steel you need, when Inland accepts your order.

New in Apparel for the Southlands

Certain Groups Just Arrived Are Interestingly Priced

It testifies to a fine skill in selection that in these assortments of newly launched fashions one may so successfully fill any requirement for Southern wear at a conservative expenditure. That these groups are assembled with a thorough understanding of each varied occasion is apparent in the wide variety presented. And as only the best of the new finds place in this section, choice may be made with the assurance of success.

Women's Silk Sports Frocks, $85
Misses' Frocks of Dotted Swiss, $60

In these frocks the newer fashion features are cleverly introduced. The embroidery, hand-done, on the woman's frock of Tonkin silk, at the center, is in striking Bulgarian colors.

Women's Wool Jersey Suits, $50
Misses' Silk Sports Suits, $95

Women's wool jersey suits in this, their newest version, are uncommonly smart. The way of the stitching and the combining of colors is noteworthy. At left. Also in misses' sizes.

In the misses' suit (not sketched), the skirt is of Canton crepe in beige color and the jacket of brown velveteen. The combination is charming.

Pleats Confirm Their Continued Vogue in the New Flannel Skirts, $30

Skirts such as these of white flannel striped in blue and black are much wanted to wear with the new short sports jackets and sweater coats. This skirt is sketched at the right center. Then, too, there are skirts of all-white serge and flannel in these complete assortments, priced from $15 to $30.

Indeed, This Section Just Now Is of Keen Interest to All Women, Whether or Not Their Plans Are Immediately Concerned With Southern Travel.

Goose Grease Cured His Cough

"My little boy had a very bad cough last week. On Thursday night I plastered his chest and throat with Camphorated Goose Grease, then covered it with a flannel cloth. He slept quietly that night and Friday morning his cough was practically gone."

For generations Goose Grease has been used with great success for colds, croup, sore throat, etc., but never has it had the great value as a remedy that it now has with the addition of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus and Pine Oil. It penetrates deep and goes right to the seat of the trouble, breaking up the most severe cold in a remarkably short time.

It is sold by all druggists as CAMP'S CAMPHORATED GOOOSE GREASE. One 60c jar may save a $60.00 doctor's bill.

PHONE MERGER CITY'S TARGET; ASKS INVENTORY

Action Planned as Soon as Small Is Seated.

Appointment of a new set of public utilities commissioners after Governor Elect Small is inaugurated is to be followed by a demand from the city that the entire Chicago property of the Illinois Bell Telephone company be inventoried at once.

The city plans to adopt a new tack in its fight on the most recent set of telephone rates approved by the present commission. No appeal to the Sangamon county court is planned for the present, but a petition for a rehearing of the entire case and an order for the inventory will be filed as soon as the new commission gets on the job.

Merger Perils Reserve, Attorneys Say.

Consolidation of the Chicago Telephone company with the Central Union or downstate company, announced Jan. 1, may endanger the individuality of the $14,000,000 depreciation reserve fund built up by Chicago nickels, according to attorneys for the city. An inventory would prevent the affairs of the old Chicago company and the downstate concern from becoming muddled, to the detriment of Chicago phone users in the merging of the two concerns, the attorneys say.

Attorneys Chester E. Cleveland and Daniel A. Roberts and W. H. Crumb, the city's engineer, are already at work on the petition for the rehearing and inventory.

Extent of the Merger.

In the merger of the two phone companies 810,000 telephones and 2,300,000 miles of wire in Illinois are placed under the control of a single company. P. E. Sunny, for twelve years president of the Chicago company, becomes president of the new concern.

Edgar S. Bloom, for seven years president of the Central Union, is made vice president, and W. R. Abbott, former general manager of the Chicago company, becomes a vice president and general manager of the new statewide phone company.

MARTENS SURE HE CAN RETURN UNDER HARDING

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Returning here following his trip to Washington to surrender for deportation proceedings, Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, unrecognized soviet "ambassador," today declared he considers he will be allowed to return under a Republican administration.

His optimism is not based on any belief that the Republican administration will be any more favorable to the soviet but because he thinks the economic situation of the next six months will lead America's business men to demand a resumption of trade relations with Russia.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

Naval post will hold its weekly luncheon in room 302, Central Y. M. C. A., 19 South La Salle street, at noon today.

5,000 WEARERS OF BUSKIN IDLE ON CHILL BROADWAY

New York, Jan. 4.—Five thousand actors and actresses are unemployed in this city and many others are stranded at distant points, victims of the widespread failure of road companies during the last year.

This statement was made today by the Actors' Equity association, which announced it had undertaken the task of succoring the unfortunate stage folk, especially those thrown on their own resources in other cities.

From September, 1919, to the end of 1920, more than thirty companies failed on the road, the statement said.

WAUKEGAN GIRL, POLITE, HELPFUL, WINS $50 PRIZE

Miss Jessie R. Edwards, citizens of Waukegan will tell you, is the town soprano. In choir and amateur theatricals her dulcet treble has been lifted to the delight of numerous local tympanums.

Miss Jessie, however, is ambitious. She craves a broader conquest, and as she plies her daily typewriter in the business office of the Waukegan Sun, she hums melodies to herself and saves lesson money for the vocal master in Chicago. Wherefore it was with a particular thrill of joy that Miss Jessie received THE TRIBUNE'S daily courtesy prize of $50.

Jessie on the Job.

To the wicket window yesterday stepped the politeness reporter. Ensconsed behind the counter he noted a little brown haired, hazel eyed lady intent upon her work.

SCRIBE (gruffly)—Say, can I make out an ad?

She hands him pencil and paper, and for the next few minutes the politeness seeker is engrossed in announcing his candidacy for a bookkeeping job.

SCRIBE (passing paper through wicket)—How much will it be

JESSIE—Fifty cents for one day, 75 for three——

SCRIBE—I can't pay that much. Couldn't you make it cheaper

JESSIE (surprised)—Why, I'm afraid not. These are very reasonable rates. Can't you even pay the 50 cents

Even Hunts Job for Scribe.

She lends attentive ear to the reporter's story of no work and little kale. Suddenly she bethinks herself of an "ad" which appeared in the preceding day's paper. Into the depths of the pressroom she wanders to retrieve a copy.

JESSIE (reading "ad" to politeness seeker)—This seems like a very good position. Why don't you answer it?

SCRIBE—Guess I'd better. I can't afford to pay any 50 cents.

Thereupon the reporter's brow wrinkles profusely as he endeavors to compose a letter. Very goofy is the expression on his face.

JESSIE (noting bewilderment)—Can I do anything?

JESSIE (smiling)—Certainly.

Kindness Without End.

With kindly patience the 19 year old town soprano superintends the writing. Snatches of conversation are heard: "O, you must start with 'Dear sir.' . . . Better tell them how much experience you've had. . . . Now start a new paragraph. . . . I think you ought to say how much you want. How much do you?"

SCRIBE—Well, I suppose about $20.

JESSIE (sagely)—You'd better ask for more. Then you can come down a bit and won't lose anything. Why not make it $25? . . . That's it. Now end up with "May I hear from you?"

SCRIBE (protesting)—That sounds sort of rotten.

JESSIE (pleasantly)—O, but it's different. They'll think you're original and then you'll make a good impression. Most everybody says "Hoping to hear from you soon."

The Great Work Is Done.

The letter is completed. Jessie addresses a return envelope, affixes a stamp which she contributes herself, and smiles a you're welcome as the reporter leaves.

When the curtain rose a few moments later for an encore, Miss Jessie was presented with a $50 bouquet.

"I try to be polite to everybody," said she. "Because I like them to like me, I guess."

There were others in Waukegan who were courteous. Take the white haired old gentleman with the bundles, for instance.

"There's quite a lot of others looking for work, too," he said, when the reporter stopped him on the street. "No, sir. I don't know of a thing. You might try the tannery. You'll find it——"

One of the Exceptions.

A youthful pedestrian bumped him.

"Why don't you watch out where you're going?" growled the youth, but the old gentleman merely eyed him in mild surprise.

At the First National bank the politeness seeker interrupted a clerk in the midst of his bookkeeping. The latter paused to cogitate.

"No, I haven't heard of a single job," said he at length. "The Chamber of Commerce has a sort of employment bureau. You might ask there."

The reporter boarded a street car en route to the American Steel and Wire company. When the stop was approached, the combination motorman-conductor turned his head.

"The wire mills?" he inquired. The politeness quester nodded his head. "Next stop. The main office is over there where you see the flag," volunteered the car man.

None Too Busy to Be Polite.

And so it went. No one seemed to be too busy to give the stranger a bit of courteous attention—that is, no one except a foreign looking individual.

"Hell, no!" he snarled when asked if he knew of a job. Then, crossing his feet, the alien glared disdainfully and spat upon the pavement.

Every Car, Used or Unused, Must Pay Vehicle Tax

You cannot escape payment of two city vehicle taxes by operating only one of your two cars at once, Acting Corporation Counsel James W. Breen decided yesterday. Agents of companies which hold one car in "reserve" propounded the question to City Collector Wesbey, who passed it on to Mr. Breen. All cars must carry individual vehicle tags, Mr. Breen ruled.

GUARD RISKS HIS LIFE TO SAVE 30 HORSES AT FIRE

Patrick O'Malley, a watchman, nearly lost his life last night in an attempt to rescue three horses from a fire that destroyed Nelson Bros. garage at 1321-23 West Randolph street and spread to the barn of the H. R. Gibbons Livery company next door. O'Malley was in the barn when smoke began pouring through the walls and flames darted through the roof. He rushed out, turned in an alarm, and ran back to rescue the thirty horses inside.

He had led twenty-seven to safety and had gone back to get the last three when he dropped on the floor, unconscious from smoke. Policeman B. F. Gerry, on his way to the fire, saw the three horses still in the burning building and ran inside to save them. He stumbled over O'Malley's body and carried him out into the air, where he was revived. He then returned and led the horses to safety.

Eight auto trucks, owned by the Active Motor Express company and valued at $25,000, were destroyed in the garage. No one was in the garage at the time the fire was discovered, and Fire Attorney John R. McCabe has started an investigation into the origin.

Singer Says She Predicted Galli-Curci's Marriage

As the marriage of Mme. Amelita Galli-Curci, the famous soprano, to her accompanist, Homer Samuels, approaches, Chicago's music studios are beginning to buzz with the old question, "Who knew about it first?"

The honor has been claimed by Miss Jane English, a concert singer with studios at 622 Fine Arts building, who points to an article appearing in a music journal published in January, 1919, which states that Miss English read Galli-Curci's palm at that time and predicted for her two marriages.

At that time Mme. Curci declared one was enough. She is to be married at Minneapolis Jan. 16.

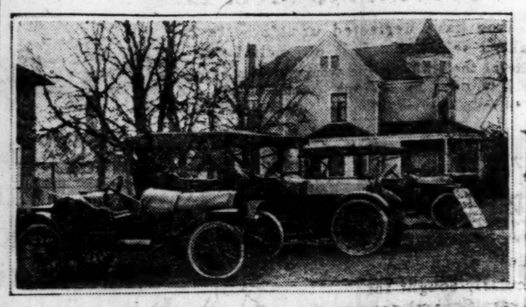

Thief Hears Conscience and Returns Stolen Veil

The troubled conscience of an amateur shoplifter yesterday caused her to return a black veil she had stolen to the millinery store of Samuel Bezark, 32 South State street.

"I confess to you I stole this, and I am sorry," she wrote. "It bothered me very much, and I couldn't keep it with a clear conscience. I hope you will forgive me. It is the first thing I ever took from anybody, and I'm sure it's the last. I took it because I needed one and couldn't pay for it, but now I have bought one and am returning it. I hope you'll forgive me.

FLIVVER AUCTION CRASHES QUIET OF LAKE FOREST

Business Not So Good, but Proprietor Won't Quit.

In Lake Forest the hauteur of the English butler is dissolved in humiliation, the crystal sluices of the French maid's lustrous eyes yield gentle tears as she dusts off the gorget of the knight errant's armor in the library, the stately suffix of the proudest Pekingese bows in a kink of ignominy, and even in the wee small hours, down the long and silent street, the dawn, with silver sandaled feet, creeps like a frightened girl.

What's the matter?
What's the matter?
What's the matter?

The Venus of the north shore has become the Niobe of suburbs, because of Van Wagenen Alling's commercial genius. The saucy box cart, the liveried limousine, the coach and four, have been outraged by a second hand motor mart which Mr. Alling has established in the enameled green of a vacant lot at Deerpath avenue and McKinley, in the heart of Lake Forest.

Protests Avail Naught.

Protests were lodged by many prominent residents, among them John V. Farwell, F. C. Farwell, John T. Pirie, D. R. McLennan, Farwell Winston, Howard Shaw, Ezra J. Warner, and C. F. Childs. Mayor Henry A. Rumsey wrote Mr. Alling a supplicatory letter, but he continups adamantine.

"Business ain't very good," said Mr. Alling last night, "but I'm going to keep right on at the old corner. Now here's an old boat, run only 12,000 miles; no carbon, new ball bearings; $290."

For a number of years there has existed a popular superstition that all good flivvers went to heaven when they died. Apparently they go to Van Alling. The lot is full of them. Also there are numerous veterans of other makes. Neighbors say they sometimes test the cutouts all at the same time, and that when they do it is almost impossible to hear a pin drop.

Hopes for Brisker Business.

Mr. Alling says the demand for flivvers in Lake Forest is not as brisk as could be wished, but that he hopes in time the folks will see the light.

In the meantime the millionaire residents are awaiting action of John T. Maxwell, owner of the property, whom they have petitioned to oust Mr. Alling.

TWO "DUDES" ROB EVANSTON DAIRY; WALLOP DRIVER

Two nattily dressed young men entered the Weiland Dairy company office, Maple avenue and University place, Evanston, yesterday afternoon and robbed the cash drawer and one employe of $1,612, most of it in checks.

"I will have to ask you to raise your hands," said one robber mildly as the pair leveled revolvers at the young woman and two men in the office.

"I'll knock you dudes for a goal if you don't cut this comedy and beat it," threatened Sundblod.

The robber, while his companion guarded Marie Weiss, a stenographer, and Robert Burger, a clerk, emptied the cash drawer and robbed Sundblod of $1.75. Both then fled. They were seen to arrive in an automobile, but none saw them depart.

WONDER WHAT A DISCARDED TREE THINKS ABOUT?

AGENTS OUSTED; ARRESTS MADE IN BOOZE INQUIRY

Report Congressman May Be Involved.

The government's investigation of the $100,000 forged liquor prescription scandal took a new turn yesterday when three dry agents were dismissed and three other men arrested by Frank D. Richardson, federal prohibition chief. All three of Richardson's men worked out of the Indiana office.

No reason was given for the discharge of the agents except to say that the move was made for the good of the service. The discharge of one or more of the agents assigned to this district is expected today.

Stolen Permits Found.

The three men, arrested in the whisky plot were Edward Crump of 1207 Jarvis avenue, Grant Mayfield of 4515 Beacon street, and John Hasler of Tinney Park, Ill. Several liquor-removal permits stolen from the eastern prohibition director's offices were found in their possession.

Federal agents declared yesterday that before the inquiry is finished at least one congressman and a number of other important officials may be involved.

"The investigations thus far have revealed that several Chicago men were in the conspiracy," said Mr. Richardson. "It was broken up, however, before any liquor was shipped."

Landis Hits Officials.

Federal Judge Landis assailed Mr. Clyne and Mr. Richardson yesterday for their slowness in getting liquor cases into court.

"It is impossible to keep Chicago dry," Mr. Richardson said, "unless we have more and better men. At the present time there are close to 2,000 liquor cases awaiting trial."

Holdup at Parmelee Barns Foiled When Trunk Drops

For the second time in as many years the barns of the Parmelee Transfer company at 731 West Adams street was the scene of an attempted holdup last night. The bandits fled, however, without obtaining anything of value.

Three young men drove up in a taxicab and forced Ralph Shaw, night cashier, into a rear room. Before they could make an attempt to rifle the cash drawers, George Martin, 161 North Carpenter street, a workman, arrived and was also forced into the room with Shaw.

At this juncture another employe came in and dropped a trunk. The bandits fled.

The Inquiring Reporter

Today's Question.

The Answers.

Marguerite Lehwaldt, Waukegan, clerk—If I had my choice I would live nearer Chicago, but my folks live here, so I guess I haven't much voice in the matter. If my folks would let me have my way I might become a Chicagoan, providing they would clean up the city of both crooks and dirt.

M. J. Cosover, Y. M. C. A., Waukegan, insurance agent—In my mind it is a much better city for my line of business than Chicago would be. You are away from the noise and congestion. You are less liable to be run over by autos. O, there are a thousand and one reasons that make Waukegan a better city than Chicago.

Dora Hook, 306 Ridgeland avenue, Waukegan, bookkeeper—A small town like this, when it is near a large city, has more advantages than the large place. The air is so much clearer and different from that of the large cities. It is a wonderful thing for the kiddies. But from an industrial standpoint, naturally the city is better.

R. A. Cooper, Washburn hotel, Waukegan, telegraph operator—I can't see Chicago, either in a business way or a home way. It is too large and stuffy, and there is too much crime. In Chicago you are not safe on the streets after 8 o'clock at night. One can be on the streets of Waukegan at 9 o'clock and have no reason for being the least bit afraid.

Varelie Petitclan, 424 Grand avenue, Waukegan, stenographer—Waukegan is the best little burg in the world. I have lived here all my life, and I hope I always will. Waukegan is crimeless. I can't say that for Chicago. Everything out here is better. The air, the stores, the town itself, and I even might say the people.

CLYNE DECLARES BUILDING INQUIRY "BIGGEST CASE"

District Attorney Clyne declared yesterday at the reopening of the grand jury investigation into the alleged building monopoly in Chicago that this case would dwarf the I. W. W. one when the evidence was presented in federal court.

The utmost secrecy surrounded the questioning of government witnesses during yesterday's hearing. Federal agents declared that this was necessary to protect the men called, many of whom were afraid of the consequences should it become known that they had testified before the grand jury.

R. E. MATTHEWS ON THE JOB.

DID you ever wonder who developed those "darb" pictures you took during the summer with your camera? Perhaps you took 'em to the nearest druggist and thought he whiled away a few minutes in the darkroom with 'em. Not so. He turned them over to the tender mercies of the amateur photographer's best friend.

Thus we introduced R. E. Matthews, one of those who collect the "fillums" from the druggists and other stations and develop them, also making the prints.

Mr. Matthews claims to make more pictures annually than any man in Chicago. He has two seasons in his work. From May to September he is busy from eighteen to twenty hours a day and impresses his wife, son, and daughter to help him develop 2,000 three foot films a day and make 2,200 prints daily from them.

Using 27,375 gallons of developer yearly, he prints an average of 600,000 pictures from 125,000 rolls of film. In the twenty-four years he has been in the business he says he has developed 2,000 miles of film and printed enough pictures to cover an area of two square miles.

Cop Clew Leads Law to Auto Slayer.

Miss Fannie Cross, who resided with her brother, Thomas H. Cross, head buyer for Armour & Co., 4320 Drexel boulevard, was killed last night by a taxicab in front of her home. The cab, driven by Thomas McDonald, 19 East Chestnut street, stopped at Forty-third street to allow a street car to pass. Policeman J. F. McNamara, who saw the accident, said that as the cab started again Miss Cross attempted to cross the street about fifty feet south of the street crossing. She died before the United States hospital at Drexel and Forty-seventh street was reached.

MISS FANNIE CROSS

Charles Jackett, 22, of 3049 Auburn street and J. W. Lundgren, 44, 5510 Emerald avenue were injured, the former perhaps fatally, last night when they were struck by an automobile containing two policemen who were pursuing another automobile. The men were alighting from a Halsted street car when the accident occurred.

Cap Traps Death Car Driver.

With their only clew the knowledge that the man sought had worn an American Railway Express company cap, Detective Sergeants Joseph Mallow and Charles McGurn of central detail last night picked from among the thousands of truck drivers in Chicago the one who ran down and fatally injured William Becker at Market and Lake streets on Dec. 28.

Becker was run down at 8:30 p. m. A Yellow cab driver, Joe Bernstein, and Charles Oberheide, of 2631 North Whipple street, took the injured man to the Iroquois hospital. Later Becker died at the county hospital.

The only information Oberheide could give was that the driver of the truck which struck Becker wore an American Railway Express company cap. Detectives Mallow and McGurn learned the firm keeps a map of the routes followed by all the regular trucks on certain days. All the drivers who had passed Lake and Market streets on Dec. 28 were lined up, but Oberheide was unable to identify any of them, and none admitted the accident.

Learn of Extra Trucks.

Mallow inquired if the company ever employed extra trucks. He was told that sometimes trucks were rented by the day from Emil C. Rosow. At Rosow's garage the foreman recalled that on Dec. 28 a truck used by the American Railway Express company had been driven by Barry. He also recalled that Barry, upon his return to the garage, had tinkered with his car, wiping it off, and spending considerable time with it. Barry said his engine was out of order.

John Galus, 642 West Fourteenth street, records showed, was Barry's helper on the day in question. To the detectives Galus confessed their truck had struck Becker. He said he had wanted to aid the injured man, but that Becker had been placed in the taxi almost immediately. The successful search for Barry followed.

Reveal Identity of "Mystery Shoplifter"; Out on Bonds

The "mystery shoplifter" who was arrested Monday afternoon in a loop department store when she attempted to steal a fur coat and who refused to disclose her identity, saying that she would rather serve ten years in jail than to bring disgrace upon her husband, was identified last night as Mrs. Maude Feidler, wife of Harry Feidler, who is said to be a salesman.

MAROONS BEAT ARMOUR 5 BY A BIG MARGIN

BY ALBON HOLDEN.

The University of Chicago basketball team defeated Armour institute at Bartlett gymnasium, 34 to 14, last night. After a weak offensive showing in the first half, the Maroons came back with a better passing game and scored almost as they pleased for ten minutes in the second half, and the entire second team finished the game.

Clarence Vollmer, who led all forwards in the Big Ten in basket totals last year, made his first appearance of the season with Stagg's team.

Vollmer Hits His Stride.

During the first half he showed lack of practice and was out of form, but after the intermission found his 1920 eye and sent five baskets through the ring.

The Maroons led 14 to 4 at the half and were never in danger, for their defense, with Capt. Crisler starring, held the teah passing game in the middle of the floor and only on long tosses could Armour score. Vollmer, Birkhoff and Halladay totaled fourteen baskets for Chicago.

Will Tackle Naperville Five.

Tomorrow night the Maroons tackle Northwestern college of Naperville. The game with Millikin college of Decatur conquerors of the University of Illinois, and the University of Iowa, two strong conference teams, announced for Friday night, has been switched to Saturday. Lineup:

GASOLINE ALLEY—A CHAPTER OF HORRORS

WOODS and WATERS by LARRY ST. JOHN

DUCK SHOOTING OF THE FUTURE.

WE once heard a disgusted duck hunter say that he would either join a duck club—if it cost $10,000—or quit duck shooting; the occupant of a neighboring blind had just spoiled a good shot for him.

"Well," we remarked, "there is a lot of ignorant competition in duck hunting and a good many hunters need enlightenment."

We suppose every duck hunter has felt the same way at times. How often in public shooting places will someone, through ignorance or selfishness, blaze away at birds far out of range for them, but heading right for your decoys? How seldom will every hunter on a marsh let the birds work and give up a long chance in order to let someone else get a good shot!

The disgusted hunter quoted above was most positive in his opinion that all duck hunters are rough necks and that one must join a club to shoot with gentlemen. We think he is wrong, for the trouble is not with the duck hunters, but with the conditions of present day duck hunting.

Just suppose, for example, that the park commissioners would suspend all rules governing golf on the public links and let everybody play when and how they choose. Would there be wrangles and fist fights for playing privileges? Would the air be full of golf balls? There, and it, sure would!

What we are driving at is this; duck hunters have increased and duck marshes have decreased to such an extent that the hunting in the future—if there is to be any hunting to speak of—will be done either on club grounds or state owned marshes, and in the latter case according to rules laid down by the management and with restrictions on hours and number of days per season each hunter may shoot.

Sounds strange, but we believe that this is what we are coming to; the present free-for-all, competitive system is spoiling the shooting for everybody.

FARM and GARDEN by Frank Ridgway

CARE OF FERNS.

Midwinter is the season of the year when ferns suffer a great deal because of the improper temperature and moisture condition of the room where they are kept. If ferns are to be thrifty and green throughout the winter the pots should be kept in a room where the temperature and atmosphere can be kept under control both night and day.

Many valuable fern plants are killed every winter in indoor window gardens where the plants are subjected to extreme high or low temperatures. A temperature around 65 or 70 degrees Fahrenheit is probably the most desirable for ferns. It is detrimental to the ferns where the temperature runs much above 70. It is also dangerous to raise the windows too high at night in extreme weather where there is danger of the room cooling to a temperature below 55 degrees.

To keep ferns growing and healthy they must have plenty of good fresh air. Avoid setting the pots near radiators or hot pipes.

In order to keep the proper amount of moisture in the air some householders find it a good practice to set a pan of water on the radiator and another near the fern pots. Dry air not only interferes with the activity of the plants themselves but encourages the development of plant pests.

On the other hand, too much moisture is not good for ferns. On damp, rainy, and foggy days the atmosphere is often saturated with an excessive amount of moisture. This condition furnishes ideal conditions under which various diseases develop that may kill the plants.

FREEDMAN AND WHITE PRECEDE REAL SCRAP WITH VERBAL BLOWS

BY RAY PEARSON.

When the howling mob goes to Kenosha the evening of Jan. 14 they'll be singing "There'll be murther here tonight!"

SAILOR FREEDMAN. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Charley White and Sailor Freedman, the Jewish fellows who will provide whatever happens in Bill Frazier's arena, went into their training yesterday at the Arcade gym. They worked at different hours in order that there might be no informal collision. When they had finished a strenuous day both had something to say, and here it is:

Sailor Freedman—There may be some fellows I can't beat, but I'll give this fellow a trimming he'll never forget.

Seem Really Hostile.

In the days "way back when," fighting rivals used to spring this sort of conversation for advertising purposes. But, brother, in this match it is on the square. Nobody has even suggested that it is going to be a grudge scrap, for past experience with so-called grudge contests have shown that they aren't that at all.

An ounce of weight in Freedman's favor will mean no fight. White has insisted on Freedman putting up a forfeit that he would not weigh over 135 pounds.

Chicago Fans Back Scrap.

This is one Wisconsin fight which will be "made" by Chicago. Probably the biggest Chicago crowd that ever attended a show in the Badger state will make the trip. Ducats valued at $7,190 were received yesterday. Before they arrived, reservations had been made for 500 top price seats.

There will be just two prices for this show, $3 and $5, plus war tax.

TORONTO SEPTET WINS AGAIN.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 4.—University of Toronto ice hockey team defeated the Quaker City team tonight, 3 to 2, in a fast game, making the second straight for the Canadian intercollegiate champions over the locals.

Robert A. Gardner of the Onwentsia club, who is on the executive committee of the United States Golf association, will leave today to attend the annual meeting at New York on Friday.

Several local players are expected to compete in the annual tournament of the Winter Golf League of Advertising Interests, which will start at Pinehurst Jan. 8. The qualifying round of the championship will be played Jan. 10.

E. E. Lloyd and E. G. Rutherford have been proposed for membership in the Flossmoor Country club.

Last month the golf committee of the Country Club of Brookline held a meeting to which it invited members of the club who had complaints to make against its administration. About eighty attended and aired their troubles, after which there was an unusual spirit of harmony.

MIDLOTHIAN IS PRIMED FOR BIG PROJECTS IN 1921

"A good year of sport at Midlothian" were the closing words of President Melvin A. Traylor's address at the twenty-second annual dinner of members of the Midlothian Country club, held at the Chicago Athletic association last night. The words indicate the exact spirit of the club, which has enjoyed a highly successful season, according to the reports of the several committees.

President Traylor stated that the club was getting an early start on several projects that are to be completed before the opening of the golf season.

NEW YORK BOXING BOARD CUTS COST OF BOUT TICKETS

New York, Jan. 4.—A $15 maximum admission for championship boxing contests in New York state and $10 for ordinary bouts was ordered today by the state boxing commission. Exception is made only in the cases of bouts for charitable purposes.

Declaring that the high prices of tickets "have been caused, in a large measure, by the exorbitant demands of certain boxers who have apparently cared little about the public upon which they must depend for their awards, the commission said, "the time has come when this selfish and short sighted attitude must be corrected."

Although boxing enthusiasts are willing to pay double the present rates to see boxers of high caliber, it was added, the commission believes it is a hardship upon the man of moderate means, who is just as much entitled to see champions in action as the wealthier neighbors."

FIX PROGRAM FOR CHICAGO-GOTHAM KID SKATE RACES

BY HARRY NEWMAN.

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Dr. A. E. Aldinger, director of physical training of the board of education, announced today that all necessary plans have virtually been completed for the skating championships to be held here between the public school boys of New York and Chicago. The date selected is Feb. 5, and it is likely the races will be held at the Lewisohn stadium.

MAYOR HYLAN [New York]. [Photo U. & U.]

The program as arranged will include elementary, junior and senior events, with three boys from each city competing in the respective events, except in the relay races.

Schedule of Events.

In the elementary division there will be a 220 and 440 yard race, together with a one-half mile relay. The junior high school boys will have a 440 yard race, an 880 yard race, and a mile relay event, while the senior high school boys will have a similar program.

MAYOR THOMPSON [Chicago.] [TRIBUNE Photo.]

The point scores will be regulated with five points for first position, three points for second, two points for third, and one point for fourth place.

In arranging for the races between the boys of the two big cities, Mayor Hylan's committee inaugurated the idea and then turned it over to Dr. Anning S. Prall, president of the New York board of education, who is a devoted enthusiast for athletics generally.

Challenge Soon on Way.

Dr. Prall immediately consulted Dr. Aldinger for final details and the challenge was soon on its way to Chicago, where Mayor Thompson appointed a committee to handle the arrangements, with the result the races now are assured for next month.

FLORENCE GAITHER [TRIBUNE Photo.]

will uncover two kid stars heralded as comers: O. Horn, 16 years old, of St. Louis, and J. Weissmuller, another 16 year old kid from this city. They are entered in the junior Central A. A. U. 100 yard free style, with Herb Topp, former Lane High schooler, a Chicago A. A. entry, another favorite.

Schedule of Events.

The events scheduled are: Men's open fifty yard free style, and 160 yard relay; women's open 100 yard back stroke and 220 yard free style; men's Central A. A. U. junior fancy diving, 100 yard free style, and 100 yard back stroke; and women's Central A. A. U. junior 50 yard breast stroke.

Sybil Bauer and Marcella Miller will represent I. A. C. against Lois Barry of Milwaukee in the women's back stroke race, and the home club will have Florence Gaither, Frieda Mattis, Sybil Bauer, and Alice Ditch in the 220 yard race, in which Miss Barry also is entered.

Ross After Hebner's Record.

Norman Ross will try for Harry Hebner's record, set in 1916, for the 100 yard medley, which includes twenty yards under water, and the same distance each breast, back, side, and crawl strokes.

Contestants in the 160 yard relay, which should be a feature race, will be the old rivals, Illinois A. C. and Chicago A. A.

JURY GIVES ROCAP VERDICT OF $500 AGAINST RICKARD

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 4.—[Special.]—After deliberating an hour the jury in the slander suit brought by William F. Rocap, sports editor and boxing referee, against George L. ["Tex"] Rickard, fight promoter, returned a verdict for Rocap in the sum of $500.

In his complaint Rocap stated that on the day following the Willard-Dempsey fight in Toledo Rickard, taking offense at an article written by Rocap regarding the fight, declared to two newspaper men that Rocap was a blackmailer and tried to hold him up for $1,000. Rocap condemned the utterances as wholly false and malicious and injurious to his reputation personally and as a writer of sporting events.

The day previous Rocap and Rickard had an altercation, when the promoter refused to redeem certain tickets for the fight returned by Rocap. Rickard in his defense denied that he called Rocap a blackmailer. The trial started Monday.

In the Wake of the News

EDEN IN EVANSTON.

(Inspired by a news story that the "Newlywed Class" of the First Baptist church decided much unhappiness is caused brides and grooms who cannot see or take a joke.)

The life of the young wedded Evanston folks

He says he is raising our rental again."
They gurgle together "He, he!" and "Haw, haw!"
"Ain't that just the funniest you ever saw."

Her humorous fancy aroused by the jest,
She chorties and hits him her comical best.

I'd gladly employ their hilarious plan
Were only my tailor an Evanston man.

President Veeck of the Cubs disapproves poker playing by his players, not because poker playing is wrong, but because it takes the men's mind off their work and tends to late hours.

We feel a certain amount of sympathy with the plea of the Federal league in appealing to the U. S. Supreme court the decision of the lower court that baseball is a "sport" and not "trade or commerce," within the meaning of the anti-trust laws. The fans, for instance, would like to feel the same way about it as does the lower court.

Southern League Will Not Attack Texas "A" Standing

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 4.—Denial that an attack upon the "A" classification of the Texas league by the Southern association is expected was made here tonight by Doak Roberts, president of the Texas league.

"I attended the Memphis meeting of the Southern association and found only the kindliest feeling towards the Texas league," Mr. Robert said.

"We are working in harmony with the association and have signed a one year agreement for a post-season championship. That we expect no attack on us is indicted by the fact that if I am not able to attend the Chicago meeting I shall ask President John A. Martin to vote our proxy."

ROGERS HORNSBY LEADS NATIONAL LEAGUE AT BAT

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Official batting averages of National league players just released show why the New York Giants offered $200,000 for Rogers Hornsby, as well as explaining why the St. Louis Cardinals refused the offer.

ROGERS HORNSBY [St. Louis Cards.]

The sturdy St. Louis lad led the league with the impressive figure of .370, a mark which has been surpassed only four times in the last twenty years. He scored ninety-six times, led in total number of hits with 218, for a high total of 329 bases. He made 44 two baggers, 20 triples and 9 homers, and played in 149 games, all of which is a most substantial volume of baseball prowess to be turned out by one man in a season.

Considering the fact that Hornsby still is a youngster, with perhaps eight or more topnotch years ahead of him, it looks as if the Giants showed wisdom in their offer, and the Cardinals good judgment in their refusal.

Would Mean Giant Pennant.

Hornsby's individual power, add to the Giants, ought to insure a championship. His power on the St. Louis club could hardly be replaced by anything that could be bought for $200,000. It is more than likely that St. Louis will profit more by keeping him there.

Hornsby's record stands out well above all rivals in the league, Fred Nicholson of Pittsburgh being second in hitting with a mark of .360 in only ninety-nine games, and Ross Young, the speedy outfielder of New York, being third with .351. Eddie Roush, the clever walloper of Cincinnati, who led the league on the previous year, finished fourth with a mark of .339.

Cubs Missed Hollocher.

While the batting of the Cubs as a club was not bad, finishing fifth with a team average of .264, it is noticeable that they lost much because of the absence of Charley Hollocher the last half of the season. "Holly" led the team in hitting with an average of .319 for the eighty games in which he played. Tom Daly with .311, Max Flack with .302, and Dave Robertson with .300 were the other north siders to break into the honor rank as swatters.

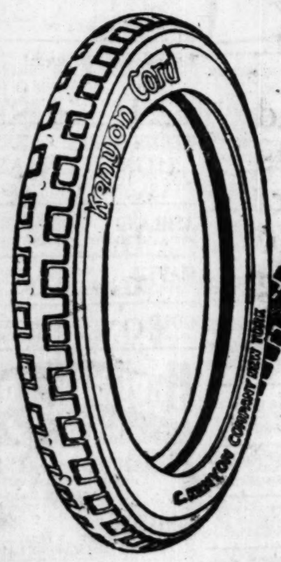

George Burns of New York led in runs scored with a total of 115, the largest number since 1911, when Jimmy Sheckard counted 121 times for the Cubs. Max Carey, speed man of the Pirates, stood out as the best base runner with a total of fifty-two steals in only 130 games. Roush was closest to him with thirty-six in 149 games, and Young Frank Frisch of the Giants was impressive with thirty-four in 110 games.

The published figures show players in forty or more games and who had an average of .220 or better. The figures on all Cubs players are shown.

By Mae Tinée.

If you are one of the many who always buys a magazine when there's a story by Ben Ames Williams in it, your interest will be immediately intrigued to learn that the photoplay under discussion is none other than the screen version of Mr. Williams' story, "Black Pawl," a powerful character study of a man who, with an evil passion he allowed to grow and thrive, like Frankenstein, fostered a monster that finally slew him.

The story of "Black Pawl" is tragic and strangely tender as concerns the man himself. The author knew deeply of whom and of what he was writing, and he could never have found a better interpreter of his character than Russell Simpson.

There is an actor! Not a matinee idol, mind you, but a man of mellow years who has played the game and won the game and lost the game, and watched the game from the sidelines, until there isn't much about it or the rest of us who are in it he wouldn't be able to drop a canny word about.

In support of Mr. Simpson is that fine old Alec B. Francis, in the rôle of a minister who doesn't preach, but understands; James Mason as Black Pawl's evil son, taught from childhood by his bitter father to scorn God, hate men, and sneer at women—because of that one woman, his mother, who had proved faithless; Helene Chadwick as the girl who, at the last, restores faith to the tortured man who proves to be her father; and John Bowers, as a clean young fellow who loves the girl and loves her true. These are the main characters—splendidly portrayed. Minor rôles are well played.

Mr. Barker, the director, to my mind, with "Godless Men," takes his place in the front ranks of the men who know how. And, to scatter a little sunshine everywhere we go, be it said that Mr. Barbee is proving himself these days to be SOME picker!

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $1 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Please write on one side of the paper. Address Bright Sayings to Aunty Bee, Tribune, Chicago.

The family having gone out shopping, young aunty had the unusual and trying responsibility of taking charge of wild Tommy. As she had feared, there was an almost continuous uproar. At length, after a brief intermission, there was another vocal explosion from Tommy, who had again tumbled down. Aunty nervously ran to the rescue and was relieved to see him jump up and rub his head.

"You naughty boy," she exclaimed wrathfully, "that's the third time today you've fallen and bumped your head!"

"Well, aunty," whimpered Tommy between rubs, "I don't see why you should feel so peeved when it's my head, not yours, that's hurt!" F. J.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune. Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

His Dog Followed.

It was very muddy outside, and I had to go to a lady's house on an errand. I took my dog with me for company. This lady had just cleaned her floor and put clean rugs on it. When I got there, I locked the dog outside the gate so he would not get in.

I went in and finished the errand, and just as I opened the door to go out, the dog slipped between my feet and into the room, dirtying the whole floor with his muddy feet. Imagine my embarrassment when I had to go in and take the dog out. C. J.

Floyd's mother had kept him busy keeping the chickens out of the yard for quite a while. He was beginning to get disgusted with the job. Going to his mother he said: "What do you tflink I am—a chicken shepherd?" A. R.

While attending a picture show one evening a small boy came in and began looking all around as if he had lost something. I asked him what he was looking for, and he said: "I've lost my grandma, she's got on specs, and wrinkles." E. D. C.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Any color, so long as it's red, might be accepted as a seasonable slogan, so greatly in evidence are shades and tones of that glowing color in dresses, millinery, and the various accessories. The sketch today shows one good reason for the popularity of red. It is used in taffeta for the underskirt and the belt of a redingote frock of string colored chiffon cloth done in allover design in red stitchery. The round neck and the kimono sleeves repeat the lines already indorsed by fashion arbiters. A hat of black velvet and algrettes completes the costume.

$1,800,000 Raised by Christmas T. B. Seals

The sale of Christmas seals by the National Tuberculosis society in 1920 reached $1,800,000. This is about $800,000 more than that in 1919, according to an unofficial announcement at a meeting of the committee of eleven of the society in the Congress hotel yesterday. The committee met to outline plans for a three days' meeting of the society, which begins in the Congress hotel today. More than 100 delegates from all over the country are expected to attend the meeting.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Hotel Baked Potatoes.

Says one hotel cook book: "Potatoes baked in their skins will come out more dry and mealy if a small piece be cut off one end to allow steam to escape in cooking."

Another says: "Neatly wipe and place six good sized, unpeeled, raw potatoes on a tin plate. Set in a brisk oven to bake for forty-five minutes, taking care to turn once in a while. Remove and serve." A wire plate is better.

The common method of serving baked potato in hotel fashion is to cut, when it is baked, a two inch long gash lengthwise of the potato and another at right angles to this and then to pinch it twice diagonally. Of course butter is often added or some sauce, but not if the potatoes are to be left in the oven to keep hot. After being so gashed and pinched potatoes can be left in the oven from five to ten minutes without harm, and often do remain much longer.

Here is a description of baked potatoes, hotel style, prepared for housewives: "Wash and bake potatoes, remove from oven, make two inch gashes on flat side of each at right angles to one another, and as served pinch from underneath so as to force potato through opening. Drop one-half tablespoon butter in each, and sprinkle generously with paprika."

The general idea of the hotel baked potato, then, is of one broken or cut open before serving. This problem of the steam formed in the baked potato, and how we shall act about it, is a fundamental one.

Mrs. Rorer says: "Do not try them (baked potatoes) with a fork, as that allows the steam to escape and consequently the potato is heavy. Use as soon as done or they will become watery."

Mrs. Hill says: "On removal from the oven, break the skin to let the steam escape, lest the naturally dry, mealy potato become 'soggy' from the quickly condensing steam."

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

Eleven Late Enough.

"Dear Miss Blake I am a girl of 20, in love with a boy of 21. We have kept company for a year and one-half. Isn't it proper for us to be left alone after 11 in the evening when the rest of the family have gone to bed? Is every night in the week too often for him to see me? Should I allow him to kiss me? TROUBLED."

Don't you think it would be more proper for the young man to be taking his hat and departure at 11? Every night in the week is a lot of time to give him unless you're engaged. Send him home unkissed—until, at least, he declares his intentions to be honorable by asking you to marry him.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

MISS P. A.: CONTRASTING COLor is better for almost every type than a monotone. A colorless blonde needs colorful dress. Done in biege and tans she extinguishes herself. I don't mean that she should wear flaming purples or reds or cerise or bright pinks, but there is a world of warm, rich color in between that will do wonders for her.

Thunder of Applause for Great Muratore Shakes Auditorium

BY RUTH MILLER.

Lucien Muratore returned to us last evening. And his idolators who crowded the Auditorium recked not of split gloves, blistered palms, splintered chairs, or Anglo Saxon restraint as they added curtain call unto curtain call. At last when Muratore took a tiny French and American flag from the inescapable wreath which was presented to him and kissed the latter with all Gallic fervor, his spectators sniffed in tearful ecstasy and showed a distinct desire to climb over the footlights and express their enthusiasm as individuals.

How does he sing after his much lamented absence? Like the greatest singing actor and master artist that he always was. Perhaps at first a wee bit of emotion at his cyclonic reception upset for a second the cool head of his art, but after that no matched necklace of superlatives could do him justice. His tone is silken, warm, and fragrant, like a flower under the noon sun.

He does not yell and storm, this Muratore. It is the shallow art that screams emotions. But that great reserve, that quietness, that controlled voice with its sheen of burnished gold may breathe an agony or an ecstasy that is not given to puny men.

Among the rich, warm tinted hangings of Prinzivalle's tent in the second act of "Monna Vanna," which is primarily the tenor's, this Olympian singer was a compelling, a rather tragically magnificent figure.

Whether by intention, unerring instinct, or both, Mary Garden portrayed Monna Vanna as the dreamy, sacrificially fanatical character that Maeterlinck had limned in the libretto, instead of the pseudo-harlot of the usual interpretations. That short, decisive opening phrase, "Mon pere, j'irai ce soir," contained all the Gethsemane of this young, exquisite, and idealistic woman who to save her people must deliver herself naked to their enemy.

Never once did she permit an illogical or jarring dramatic note to creep in. From the moment when, in the fire of unselfish impulse, she announced her decision, through the second act, which was dominated by a youngness of emotional awakening that was half timorous spirit and half glowing flesh, to the third, where, meeting distrust and unbelief, she changed from anxious bewilderment to defiance and cunning simulation, she painted, stroke by stroke, a master portrait. Her voice was fuller and richer than it has ever been in the memory of this typewriter.

Georges Baklanoff was the third of this trio; which constituted probably the three greatest singing actors the world knows today. As the commander of the garrison he brought to the difficult first act all the dramatic finesse and vocal splendor that is his. How this huge man moves in a series of imposing pictures! Recall that one in the third act, when, as Monna Vanna approaches, he stands for a tortured moment against the pillars like a figure crucified.

Henri Morin conducted. His work was meritorious, but he permits himself to be affected too much by the excitement of the music. To weave a perfect operatic or symphonic effect of intensity, its creator must be somewhat aloof, impersonal, and cold toward it. That Mr. Morin is not. He permits the drama and the melody to sway him and jeopardize the surety and the mastery of his beat.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER. And the Poor Get Poorer.

When Winnie entered the office of Ketchum and Co., she found half a dozen other applicants for the position of stenographer. "Maybe I'll be lucky today," she mused as she waited.

She had been waiting expectantly, when the boss stepped out of his private office smiling. Almost simultaneously the outer door was flung open, and in stepped a butler and a footman.

In their wake came a richly clad society flapper followed by her French maid. The procession walked ceremoniously up to the boss, and the butler presented the lady's card on a tray.

The boss, bowing deferentially, ushered them into his sanctum. In a few minutes he emerged and announced, "I've just hired Miss Hortense Vandergould de Gorgonzola as my stenographer." "The rich get richer," muttered Winnie, leaving in disgust.

Broken Moon

By Roberts & Callahan
(Writers of "Smiles" and "Patches")

"But oh, let me die to the sounds of delicious music!" said Mozart.

But BROKEN MOON does not appeal alone to the young. It takes the silver-haired back over the Road to Yesterday—to moon-lit gardens, to Love's Young Dream that has weathered the storms, and that the full moon of Life now bathes in its golden glow.

Unusually large shipping orders added tone to yesterday's hog trade, which closed at high time of the day. Outsiders purchased 15,000 of the 39,000 received, being the largest shipments in more than a year. Receipts the first two days of this week decreased 64,000 compared with a year ago, while shipments increased 16,000.

Best hogs sold early in the day at $9.90 and later reached $10, with the general average 5c higher than Monday at $9.45. Packers fought the advance in prices as Armour houses remained out of the market while Swift concerns took only 300.

After a steady to 25c higher start, the cattle market closed weak with the early advance lost. Best native steers offered sold at $11.50. Sheep and lambs were only slightly changed. No lambs sold above $11.50.

Seven western markets received 41,000 cattle, 96,000 hogs, and 37,000 sheep, against 29,000 cattle, 105,000 hogs, and 36,000 sheep previous Tuesday and 56,000 cattle, 195,000 hogs, and 47,000 sheep a year ago.

Receipts for today are estimated at 8,000 cattle, 26,000 hogs, and 15,000 sheep, against 9,800 cattle, 28,354 hogs, and 9,470 sheep at Chicago corresponding Wednesday a year ago.

FINANCIAL NOTES

John J. Geddes entered the employ of the Merchants' Loan and Trust company twenty-one years ago as a bank messenger. Yesterday faithful service paid a dividend when he was made cashier by the directors, succeeding P. C. Peterson, who has retired on a pension. William A. Hutchison, auditor and chief clerk, who began work with the bank twenty-two years ago as a messenger, likewise was rewarded by being made assistant cashier. Richard T. Crane Jr. resigned as a director, due to the press of other business. With this exception the same officers and directors were re-elected.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s record of failures for 1920, made public yesterday, showed 8,881 commercial failures throughout the country with $295,121,805 in indebtedness against 6,451 in 1919 involving liabilities of $113,291,237. The increase of 2,430 in number is relatively much smaller than the expansion of $181,800,000 in liabilities, showing the rise in number of failures to have been 37.7 per cent and of indebtedness 160.5 per cent.

The Mohawk Mining company has passed its quarterly dividend. On Nov. 1 last a payment of $1 a share was made. The Miller Rubber company has cut the rate on its dividend by declaring a quarterly payment of 1 per cent on the common, whereas the previous quarterly rate was 2 per cent. Cities Service Bankers declared a monthly dividend of 34 cents on bankers' shares, payable Feb. 1 to stock of record Jan. 15. On Jan. 1 39 cents a share was declared.

Holders of voting trust certificates for shares of Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor corporation stock have been notified the agreement will expire Jan. 14, 1921, and shares deposited thereunder will be distributed to certificate holders.

The Alpha Portland Cement company has purchased the plants and business of the Burt Portland Cement company at Bellevue, Mich.; the Ironton Portland Cement company at Ironton, O., and the La Salle Cement company at La Salle, Ill. C. A. Irvin has been elected a vice president, and will have charge of the Alpha interests in the territory formerly served by these companies, with headquarters in Chicago.

Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City company, will be the guest of honor at the winter meeting of the Bankers' Club of Chicago in the Drake hotel this evening. He will speak before members of the Association of Commerce at the La Salle at luncheon.

LIBERTY ISSUES CONTINUE GAIN; INVESTORS BUY

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—The bond market was active and strong again today and derived much of its momentum from the reappearance of buying orders from investors. Liberty and Victory loans were among the leaders. The 3½s made a new high on this movement and sold about $3.00 per $100 above last month's low level. Others gained in proportion.

Belgian 7½s were in demand at an advance of ¾. Reports that a program for funding maturing French loans in this country during 1921 had been adopted could not be confirmed, although it was stated payment on the Paris five year 6s due Oct. 15 and a portion of the "three cities" loan would be met by French credits here. French 8s advanced to 101. United Kingdom 5½ per cent notes of 1929 rose more than a point and about 2 points from yesterday's low.

Low priced rails featured their class. Missouri Pacific general 4s sold at 54. Erie general lien 4s were strong and the same was true of the various Frisco issues, although there was a reaction of a point in the prior lien 5s series "B." Western Maryland first 4s, which closed last year at 53½, sold in small quantities ½ point above that figure.

RAILROAD NOTES

At the Norfolk and Western railroad hearing before the railway labor board yesterday, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen representatives requested a rule allowing yardsmen to ride on cars in "hump" yards as a safety measure. Road officials, however, said the rule was unnecessary, as there had been few accidents. The brotherhood also submitted a rule to fill all yard vacancies with promotable men and to employ up to 85 per cent of brotherhood men. The railroad contended its right to employ whoever it chose.

The Michigan Central, a subsidiary of the New York Central, was authorized yesterday by the interstate commerce commission to issue notes and bonds, payable to the parent company, amounting to $5,000,000. The proceeds will be used for purchase of new equipment and improvements to the line.

Advances to the carriers authorized by the interstate commerce commission from the revolving fund created by the transportation act totaled $189,852,787 at the end of last year, it was learned yesterday. The advances in December totaled $64,279,923, the largest during any single month.

The Peoria and Pekin Railroad company will be forced into bankruptcy if required to take up outstanding financial obligations due Feb. 1, it informed the interstate commerce commission yesterday in making application for a loan of $1,861,000 with which to refund the obligations for a five year period. The company offered to pledge as security first mortgage bonds amounting to $1,182,000 and second mortgage bonds of $679,000.

Cancellation of proposed increased rates on petroleum in tank cars from points in Kansas, Oklahoma, and Missouri to Chicago and Milwaukee was ordered yesterday by the interstate commerce commission, which held them to be unjustified.

A loan of $1,000,000 to the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway company was approved yesterday by the interstate commerce commission to aid the company to meet maturing indebtedness of $1,087,000.

SERVICE FIRST.

ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Why Telephone Rates Are Increased

EFFECTIVE July 1, 1920, the Public Utilities Commission of Illinois, acting upon the petition of the Telephone Company, (filed July 19, 1919, Case No. 9291) temporarily authorized an increase in rates for certain classes of service, which increase was less than the Company had petitioned for.

During the four months, July to October, inclusive, the revenue received from these temporary rates fell short of paying operating expenses and capital charges by over $750,000, or in excess of $2,250,000 annually, and failed to provide a reasonable return on the fair value of the property by a much greater amount.

To meet this situation, in November, 1920, the Company filed a substitute schedule of rates to obtain the necessary revenue to pay operating expenses and provide net earnings sufficient to attract the many millions of new capital which must be obtained to pay for additions to the property required to meet the demands of this community for additional service.

The Public Utilities Commission, after sixteen months of consideration, rendered its final order December 20, 1920. It made a number of the temporary rates of July 1, 1920, permanent; it allowed a few of the substitutions asked for in November; disallowed others, and reduced some of the temporary rates. The changes in rates for the principal classes of service are shown below.

The new rates authorized by the Commission became effective January 1, 1921, and, while it is estimated that the revenue which will be derived from these rates will produce less than a fair return on the reasonable value of the property devoted to the service of the public, they will, of course, be given a fair trial, and the Company will do its best to make them suffice.

RATE CHANGES

Four party coin box residence service:

The message rate is reduced from 6½c to 5c per message and the guarantee is changed from one message a day to one and eight-tenths messages a day for 9c a day. This means a guarantee of $2.70 for a thirty-day month, including 54 messages, in place of $1.95 per month for a 30-day month, including 30 messages.

Previous rate of 3c each for messages between 126 and 175 and 2½c each for messages over 175 is changed to 4c each for messages between 76 and 200 and 3½c each for messages in excess of 200 in a month.

Measured business service:

GRAINS DROP AS BUYING SLUMPS; EXPORTERS LAG

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Buying of grains, which opened the new year with a rush, subsided materially yesterday. There was more desire to take profits and the markets had a natural reaction after a strong and advancing movement. The opening prices were the highest and the closing prices well toward the inside, with wheat off 2¼@4c, corn 1¼c, oats ½@¾c, rye 1¼c, and barley ¼c.

Lard and short ribs had support and closed 5@10c higher for lard and 2½@5c up for ribs, while pork was slow and 10c lower.

News was less favorable to the conservative side of the markets. The most striking feature in wheat was the reported effort of the Egyptian government to cancel 11,000,000 bu wheat and flour bought from Australia. It was said in the event of its failure to cancel the holding would be resold. Export buying lagged and milling demand showed less urgency.

More Corn Moving.

An increased movement of corn is indicated by consignment notices from Illinois and Iowa. This, with the setback in wheat, had a depressing effect on values, brought in more selling pressure, and reduced the disposition to buy. Prices declined 1¾c at the extreme and closed with 1¾@¾c of the low point. The main support at the last was buying against the bids. Export buying of corn was 200,000 bu in all positions. Elevator operators bought low grades in the sample market and sold May at a full carrying charge difference.

Oats declined ¾c and had support at the last from buying against bids. Longs sold out early and the dip in corn checked buying.

Exporters bought rye, getting 145,000 bu in all positions at 3¼c over May for January shipment. Barley was taken by exporters, 15,000 bu selling at 78c track New York, but the market for both rye and barley futures was weaker and lower.

Packers Sell Lard.

Small local and outside packers were the best sellers of provisions and shorts the best buyers. Deliveries on January trades were 2,650,000 lbs. Cash business was light. Lard was taken by commission houses and attributed to cotton oil interests. Offerings were light during the morning, but increased at the last, yet closing trades were at small gains. Prices follow:

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Export demand for wheat was limited, the only business reported being 40,000 bu hard winter at the gulf, against old sales. Greece took 10,000 brls flour. Belgium and England were out of the market. A little dark No. 3 northern sold to the seaboard from Chicago at 22c over March, track Philadelphia.

Domestic shipping sales at Chicago were 35,000 bu wheat, including 25,000 bu dark No. 2 northern to local mills, 100,000 bu corn, and 145,000 bu oats. Outside markets sold 145,000 bu rye to Baltimore at 31½c over May, track there, and 15,000 bu barley brought 78c, track New York. Export sales of corn in all positions were 200,000 bu. The best bid on corn here was 11c over May, track Baltimore, with 12c over asked, with 25,000 bu sold abroad.

Premiums on cash wheat showed little change in all markets. No. 1 hard at Chicago sold at 13½@13½c over March and No. 2 hard at 10½@12c over. No. 1 red sold at 26½c over. Receipts, 19 cars. St. Louis was 1c higher to 1c lower, and Kansas City and Omaha unchanged.

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

Technically the wheat market was looked upon by some local operators as indicating weakness owing to the heavy reduction in short commitments on Monday's bulge. Those who believe prices are high enough for the present, and that the bullish factors have been discounted by the recent advance of 15c, expect the foreign demand to fall off, as it frequently does around this time of the year. They do not believe domestic buying will prove large enough to sustain values unless speculation enlarges, even though the wheat already bought for export is cleared. A moderate setback is expected, but it is not believed the market will have a wide break.

Passage of the war finance bill to aid farmers is regarded both ways by the grain trade. A lot of buying was based upon its announcement, and the bulge it created was taken advantage of by a few to get profits. Cash handlers regard it as a strengthening factor that is likely to have its effect later.

A bearish view of the corn situation is taken by Logan & Bryan and Bartlett & Frazier. Both believe the usual winter movement of corn from the country is getting under way, and the market will be weakened in view of the heavy carrying charge and general lack of shipping demand. Export demand is not heavy enough to sustain an advance as many see it.

Milling demand for wheat has fallen off somewhat. J. E. Bennett & Co.'s Hutchinson, Kas., office wired that the Larrabee flour mills, among the largest in Kansas, had shut down as the result of lack of demand for flour. Reports from Minneapolis said millers were good buyers there.

Heavy rains are delaying harvesting of wheat in Australia, but so far no damages of consequence is reported. The harvest is exceptionally late this year. Weather in Argentina was better.

Imports of foreign wheat and flour into France in August and September increased 20,592,000 bu, compared with 14,828,000 bu in 1919.

Southern Pipe Line.

L. G. B.—The Southern Pipe Line company has paid 4 per cent quarterly in the last nine months, compared with 5 per cent quarterly in the three years preceding. It has paid out more in dividends than it has earned nearly every year since 1914. The Eureka Pipe Line has been gradually reducing its dividend from 40 per cent in 1914 to the present rate of 12 per cent. The Southern is principally trunk line. The Eureka is principally engaged in gathering oil from West Virginia wells.

Packard Motor Car.

C. D., South Bend, Ind.—The Packard Motor Car company earned 45 per cent on its $11,885,100 of common stock in the year ended Aug. 31 last, compared with 41 per cent on a little less stock in the preceding year. The common stock is of $10 par. Production was about evenly divided between trucks and passenger autos. Since Sept. 1, the company has been operating on a slightly reduced schedule.

Federal Power and Light.

E. S.: Galesburg, Ill.: The Federal Power and Light company controls utilities in groups of small towns in Ohio, Indiana, and Iowa. It paid dividends on its $5,000,000 of preferred stock until May, 1918, and then stopped. The last two payments were in scrip. Gross earnings were $124,875 and net $33,731 in the year ended Feb. 28 last, according to Moody's analyses. Interest charges were reported at $30,232. Only incomplete information is made public.

Riordan Company, Ltd.

L. A. M., Menominee, Mich.—The Riordan Company, Ltd., is issuing $6,500,000 of bonds, secured by first mortgage on one plant and leasehold rights on timber and by general mortgage on other plants. The company was formed last June as a consolidation of the Riordan Pulp and Paper company, the Kipawa company, and a controlling interest in the Tiseonderoga Pulp and Paper company. The present combination is comparatively new, but the bonds have a wide margin of safety in asset value and recent earnings are three times the interest charges.

Brief Answers.

J. K., Quincy, Ill.—The Kentucky Utilities company earned its first mortgage bond interest more than twice last year. It has also some junior bond issues and some floating debt, and the total fixed charges were covered with only a moderate margin of safety.

J. S.—The Albertson Manufacturing company has not replied to a request for information, and there is no quotable market for its stock.

IMMENSE PROFITS IN THE BUSINESS

Official records show that the percentage of net income to capital of 33 typical companies for 1919, after deducting all losses and expenses, was 195.7.

The dividends paid by these companies, many of them on capital greatly increased by stock dividends, ran well over 23 per cent in 1919.

PLACE FOR AN ILLINOIS COMPANY

This state sent to 17 foreign countries, in 1919, premiums amounting to $17,181,447.35; to England alone, $10,224,577.62.

Premiums sent from the entire state to all other states and countries in 1919 reached the enormous total of more than 60 million dollars. It is proposed that we keep more of this money at home.

The Chicago Fire and Marine Insurance Company will have a capital of $1,000,000.00; net surplus, $1,125,000.00. This stock is non-assessable.

From $150,000 to $20,000

A SUCCESSFUL business man in a small town in Illinois was worth $150,000 ten years ago. He was then about 60 years old. Five years later his wealth was less than $80,000, and a few months ago when he died his estate amounted to only a little over $20,000.

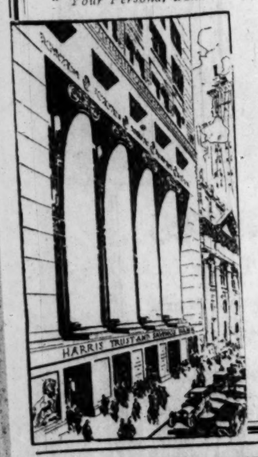

Ten years ago he was advised by some of his banker friends to create a trust fund of at least half the $150,000 he was worth so that he and his family would be protected against reverses late in life. He laughed at the suggestion.

The dwindling of his fortune was not due to failure in business nor to any single serious misfortune. However, his money gradually slipped through his fingers.

Cases like this are so common — probably everyone who reads this knows of at least one —that more and more business men as they get along in years are creating trust funds (either for themselves or members of their families) of the greater part of their wealth.

By so doing they insure themselves and their families of a comfortable income, no matter what business reverses they may suffer later in life. This Bank, with more than thirty-eight years of banking and investment experience, is especially equipped to handle trust funds of this character.

A Suggestion

For Purchasers of

Foreign Government Bonds

INVESTORS disposed to make purchases of the external loans of European nations, should take advantage of the present abnormal condition in Foreign Exchange to buy bonds which are payable in the several different European currencies instead of only in American dollars.

The profit from appreciation in exchange accrues entirely to the issuing nation in the case of the "dollar loans," while it accrues to the investor in the case of issues payable in foreign currencies.

We have prepared a letter which we shall be glad to send you on request, presenting the possibilities of this situation as suggested by the current prices obtained for

PICK NEW STAFF TO RUN CHICAGO MAIL ORDER FIRM

BY O. A. MATHER.

Virtual reorganization of the official staff of Montgomery Ward & Co., the big Chicago mail order concern, was announced last night following a meeting of the board of directors. This action followed quickly on the heels of reports in the Chicago financial district that several well known Chicagoans had been buying a considerable block of the company's shares in the market and that a change in management was imminent.

John A. Spoor and Bernard A. Eckhart of Chicago and Theodore F. Merseles were elected directors to succeed James W. Thorne, George A. Thorne and Henry P. Kendall. Mr. Merseles also was elected president to succeed Silas H. Strawn, who resigned to become chairman of the board. The announcement of the new directorate also discloses that James B. Duke has been succeeded by Elliott A. Averett.

Merseles a New Yorker.

President Merseles for the last eighteen years has been vice president and general manager of the National Cloak and Suit company of New York, which, next to Montgomery Ward & Co., is the oldest mail order house in the United States.

"Under Mr. Merseles' management, the business of the National Cloak and Suit company has grown from $1,000,000 to $50,000,000 a year," said a statement issued by the directors. "The directors of Montgomery Ward & Co. feel that they have in Mr. Merseles a man who in experience and capacity is best adapted to meet the responsibilities of the position. It also is believed the changes strengthen the position of the company and give assurance of a vigorous policy in the future."

The new board of directors consists of Silas H. Strawn, chairman; Elliott A. Averett, B. A. Eckhart, D. R. McLennan, J. C. Maddison, T. F. Merseles, Charles D. Norton, J. A. Spoor, Charles H. Thorne, and Robert J. Thorne. Vice President Maddison also was chosen secretary and treasurer.

"Hard Work, No Profits," in 1920.

"The year just closed has been one of hard work and no profits for Montgomery Ward & Co.," the statement says. "Gross sales were $112,333,525, compared with $108,514,367 in 1919. The business for the whole year will show an operating loss of about $1,000,000. A peak inventory of $45,000,000 three months ago has been reduced to $31,000,000 before depreciation. In the inventory now being taken all values are being cut to the bone.

"Bills payable have been reduced from a maximum of $16,000,000 to $10,400,000 on Dec. 31, and there is $3,400,000 cash in bank. Current accounts payable but not due were less than $2,800,000 on Dec. 31, as against $3,650,000 the year before. The company has no bonds or serial notes outstanding and is paying dividends only on $4,000,000 preferred stock in the hands of the public."

New Board of Trade Members.

Henry M. Ferguson and John F. Barrett, the latter a son of Anthony J. Barrett, were elected to the membership in the Board of Trade yesterday.

"But I Made the Circumstances," replied Napoleon when twitted that circumstances made him. And you can make the circumstances of your family, should you die, by perpetuating the necessary part of your present income for their comfort. Ask W. W. Williamson, Manager Phoenix Mutual Life, 11 So. La Salle St., Chicago. Randolph 1194.

The New York Times.

New York, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—Today's markets witnessed no easing off in money rates; even the 7 per cent rate for call loans, which has been maintained uninterruptedly since the monetary 6 per cent rate of Dec. 21, was quoted in all transactions.

In the time money market prevalent rates for loans on industrial security were a trifle firmer. But in all branches of that market small business was reported and this condition is likely to continue under the existing state of security markets and mercantile trade. Banks are more or less perplexed as to what rate should prevail when the question is not primarily one of supply and demand, but, in the commercial paper market particularly, one of relative safety of investment.

Stocks Uneven; Bonds Active.

Prices of stocks on today's market moved more uncertainly than on Monday, but the day's more positive movement was that of investment bonds. It has been evident for a week that, while there was not any general, indiscriminate rush of money for "reinvestment," a few unmistakable orders of that character would put up prices. Such buying was much more general today than before; it resulted in a considerable number of advances running from ½ to 1⅝ points.

It was again the industrial shares that led the recovery in the stock market, but the movement was not uniform. While a number of the more speculative stocks advanced 2 to 3 points in the early hours, others were weak, and before the close nearly all had lost a good part of the early gains.

Rail Earnings Main Factor.

The railway shares pretty uniformly ended lower. It is probable enough that the summaries of November net earnings, following those for October and September, have had a deterrent influence. We have still to see how far the railway revenues of December and ensuing months will be relieved from that part of the heavy operating charges which in previous months had been burdened so greatly by retroactive wages and deferred but urgent maintenance outlay.

If it should be shown that the present rates were inadequate to counterbalance last summer's advance of railway wages, the duty of the interstate commerce commission is plain. Readjustment upward probably would be unpopular, but the commission's definition of its own legal obligation has been that, after determining property valuation, it is "called upon to perform the administrative task of establishing rates that will yield in the aggregate, as nearly as may be," the 6 per cent return prescribed by law.

DRY GOODS MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—New low prices named on southern lines of cheviots, chambrays and staple ginghams stimulated business for ninety day delivery. Bleached muslins were quiet, as were percales at the new prices. Print cloths were in light demand at 8c a yard for 38½ inch 64x60s. Yarns were firmer. Taffetas and crepe satins were stronger in silk markets. Burlaps were quiet. Wool goods dull.

ADVERTISING BUILDING SOLD FOR $800,000

BY AL CHASE.

"Biggest deal of the year" are words that carry little significance on the second business day of the year, but the sale of the 16 story Advertising building and leasehold at 119-23 West Madison street, across the street from the La Salle theater, for a reported $800,000, goes under that classification. Leslie J. Pulliam, who is president of the Union Fuel company, was the buyer and Frank T. Boydston of Boydston Bros., Cottage Grove avenue undertakers, was the seller. The building, 45x90, was built in 1913-14 by Frederick Barnheisel from plans by Carbys Zimmerman of Zimmerman, Saxe & Zimmerman, architects.

The Union Fuel company, with several coal mines downstate, will move its general offices from the Lytton building to the property just bought, which will be renamed the Union Fuel building. Its operating and sales offices will be moved here from Springfield.

The building was appraised at $597,000 and a $200,000 mortgage was assumed by the buyer. The fee is owned by the Northern Trust company, trustees of the Michael Burke estate. Its valuation is placed at $800,826.

Building Permits

42th-st., W., 2489, two story brick, F. Szalaskiewicz, owner; J. Czarnowski, arch. $10,000

Chicago Title and Trust Company

For seventy years the title service of Chicago has been efficiently performed by this Company and its predecessors.

In early days the highest type of abstracts of title was instituted in this city and title service was placed upon a sound basis.

The increasing development of the city induced the company to introduce the title insurance plan, which has been developed into an unequaled system for safely, sanely and speedily transacting all title business.

A trust department and an escrow and settlement department fill appropriate places.

The company does not compete with its clients, pays strict attention to its own business and so does that business well.

How to Build Up a Fortune by Systematic Investment

REGULAR, systematic saving and sound investment are the roots of most large fortunes. By laying aside a comparatively small amount of money each week or each month, every man may build up a comfortable fortune. For example, $10 a week, saved regularly and invested safely at 6%, will amount to $20,000 in a little over 20 years.

No. of Years		$1 a week	$3 a week	$5 a week	$10 a week	$25 a week

What of 1921?

Will 1921 be a record breaking year in American commerce and industry?

Try got to the starting point and stopped—but Will went to the top.

The year 1921 can be the greatest year in American commerce and industry if the business men of America so WILL and then keep everlastingly active to carry this determination to the top.

The opportunity of the ages lies immediately within the grasp of American business men. It must be seized in 1921.

The United States of America is the richest country on earth. It has an estimated wealth of four hundred billions of dollars—the greatest creditor nation in the world.

The one nation to which all other nations on earth do now turn for political guidance, financial aid, agricultural, industrial and commercial supplies.

This country of ours has emerged from the world's war and two years of its aftermath with the best political, social, economic and labor situation in the world.

Our Federal Reserve Bank system has carried American finance through the severest financial test the world has ever known.

A recent Federal Reserve Bank statement shows a gold reserve percentage of 45.6 and prediction is freely made that our cash reserve resources will reach the percentage figure 50 before 1921 business gets fairly started.

Contrast this with the Bank of England's showing—a gold reserve of only 7.8 per cent of its liabilities! And Great Britain is doing a world's business and getting along nicely without a yelp or whimper for help.

The United States of America has in its possession at this time sufficient food to feed itself and enough to make up the world's deficiency.

We have the raw material resources of iron, copper, coal, cotton, wool, forest products and other basic commodities; can fabricate them at the lowest cost on earth to supply the world's deficiencies.

Is there any factor absent from this category of assets we possess?

Only one:

Confidence!

Confidence to enable the determination of business America to scale the mountain of world's supremacy in commerce and industry.

Confidence will bring buyer and seller together. Confidence is the path to the common meeting ground where 1921 business will be transacted.

Mosinee Kraft has determined to make its contribution to the general economic supremacy of American commerce and industry. Mosinee Kraft will maintain and advance its efficient production and merchandising policies.

Mosinee Kraft is the first and only standardized wrapping paper. Every yard is uniform in weight and tensile strength. Lighter weights can be used with safer delivery of packages. The saving in excess weight goes into extra yards.

There's sure economy in using Mosinee Kraft—the kind of economy needed to inspire confidence in American industry.
